LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

dear sirs:

i am writing this letter in regards to your offer to sell "O holy might" cards. I feel i have been mislead by your offer.

i have sold almost 500,000 boxes which entitles me to a real fighter airplane. now i'm not saying that i'm not a patient man but for four weeks i've sweated and toileted to sell your cards going out in the snow and sleet and hail facing all hazards imaginable and now when it becomes your turn to become "mr. nice guy" you cut out on the deal% as i have previously stated i'm not an impatient man, but I WANT MY AIRPLANE.

you'd better get it to me soon or there will be hell to pay. in case you haven't heard i've got power now and i know what to do with it.

sincerely

President

Dear Mr. X III-

We are very sorry if we have caused you any inconvenience. we are also sorry to inform you that we have run out of fighter airplanes. However, as a consolation we are sending you two million desk slats and 50,000 radiator knobs (without set screws we figure you have lost too many screws already).

once again we reiterate our embarrassment at your inconvenience.

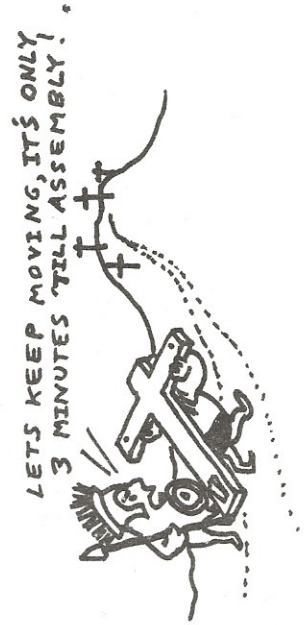

Sincerely

REPLY TO
ATTN OF: Gowen T. Gettum, Major, USAF.

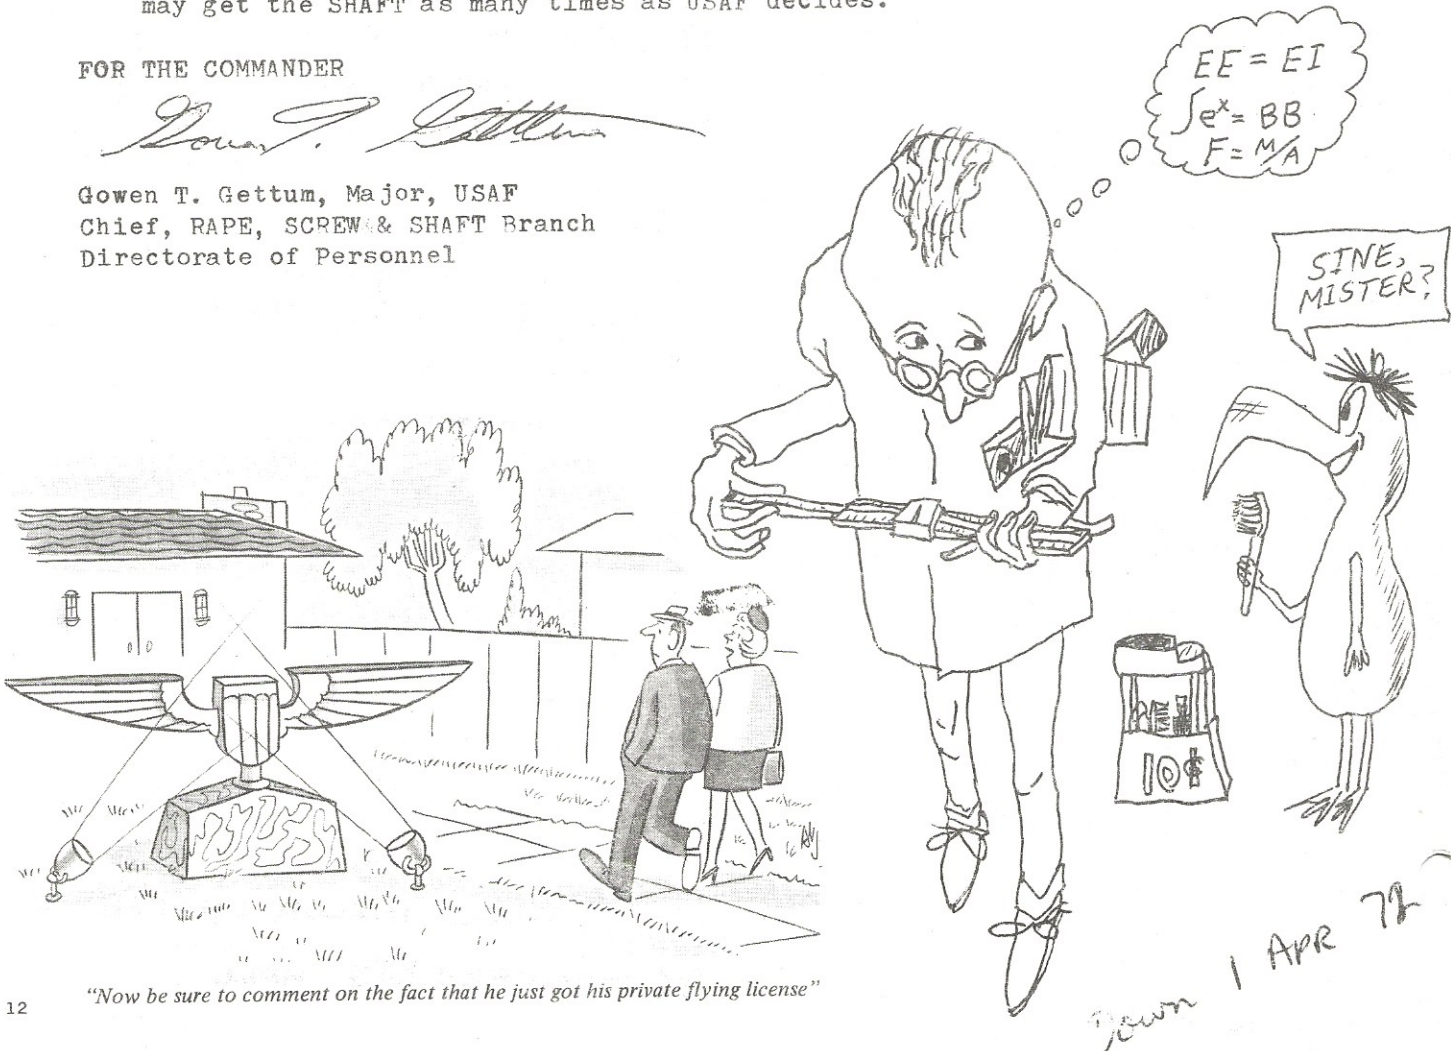

SUBJECT: New Program to Facilitate Termination of Surplus Personnel.

TO: All Concerned.

1. In accordance with USAF policy of phasing out all surplus personnel by the end of 1971, the RAPE(Retire All Personnel Early) program will go into effect immediately.
2. Employees who are RAPE'd will be given an opportunity to seek other employment, providing that while they are being RAPE'd they request a review of their records before the discharge takes place. This phase of the operation is called SCREW (Survey of Capabilities of Retired Early Workers.).
3. All employees who have been RAPE'd and SCREW'd may also appeal for a final review. This is called SHAFT (Study by Higher Authority Following Termination.)
4. Present USAF policy dictates that employees may be RAPE'd and SCREW'd twice, but may get the SHAFT as many times as USAF decides.

Ever in hot pursuit of new material, the DODO had sent out their Pro team to dredge up all that our sister institutions had to offer. Not all were as lucky as this scout that discovered 4 horned toads, an autographed picture of Charles Manson, a flaming tennis ball (oddly enough, rolling down the valley, away from the Academy), a bottle of Heinz Steak Sauce, Vintage '47 (a good year for Aleutian Tomatoes), 3 Coorski Beer cans (that was before they changed their ethnic image to Coloradoan), a stripped deck of Bicycle Pinochle playing cards, one black book of good leis, Hawaiian, Vintage '01, 2 wooly bears reputed to have adorned President Truman's desk (for the whole of his Administration), and 1 D.F.*

The rest of us, praising God for the near escape, returned to the Rocky Hole of USAFA, and will continue our hunt for humor safely, turning over the lichen covered rocks, searching for ancient runes on the bottoms (a Lost Race of Bennet Cerfs & all that rot). On the other hand, Green Hairs.
