DODO is an unofficial humor magazine published in the interests of editors at the United States Air Force Academy. It is published by the permission of the Air Force Academy and is not to be considered an official expression of the Department of the Air Force. The opinions of editorial management are those of the Department of the Air Force. The Department of the Air Force is not responsible for the content of the articles appearing in DODO or for the opinions, and any similarity between them and reality is purely coincidental.

Dodo, Raphus solitarius (Length 3 ft.)

Yes, DENVER POST, you can quote me on that. We try to give all cadets as much leadership experience as possible. We feel that the practice they get in solving problems here are invaluable for their careers in the Air Force.

No, the cadets can't wear gloves today, too warm. Oh, by the way, the honor rep the 3⁰'s elected is unacceptable. Yes, also have the squadron commander check off rooms before sign out. Write up C2C Schmuck for missing his dental appointment.

I RATE CADET _____ { last next to last } BECAUSE OF { his her }

{ constant continual total recurring persistent } { disregard avoidance inattention indifference disrespect } TOWARD { his classmates the squadron activities the cadet uniform fourthclass training his AOC }

AND { his her } GENERAL LACK OF { interest in concern for worry about positive statements about } { the cadet way of life the big picture graduation peer ratings what really matters }

CADET _____ SHOULD GIVE MORE ATTENTION TO BOTH { squadron parties his roommates SDO/DI/CCQ social obligation } AND { marching training dancing Group meetings }

This rating is based not upon vague general impressions or the opinions of others. I do not even know what this person looks like, and the entire form is a complete fabrication. I am also aware that this form will be accepted as completely valid in the evaluation of this individual.

DISASTER

That's Life

STAFFER: You can't practice here anymore.

BAND: How come?

STAFFER: You're making too much noise.

BAND: It's Sunday! Who are we disturbing?

STAFFER: Cadets studying upstairs in their rooms.

BAND: But nobody studies on Sunday morning!

STAFFER: There's about 500 studying in this very quadrangle.

BAND: You really believe that?

STAFFER: ...mumble mumble...But Major Sturdley says you gotta leave.

BAND: How come?

STAFFER: Hey look! Don't give me no *@#!!

BAND: There aren't that many people trying to study; why can't they go to the library?

STAFFER: We can't tell all of them to go to the library just because the six of you want to practice.

BAND: O.K., we'll go practice in the Firstie Lounge in A-Hall.

STAFFER: You can't do that.

BAND: But there's only two people in there at any given time!

STAFFER: We can't tell two people to go somewhere else just because the six of you want to practice.

BAND: For *@##! sake! We'll go to Fairchild Hall!

STAFFER: But you can't use their equipment, it's locked up.

BAND: We don't want to use their equipment!

STAFFER: Then you can't go over there.

BAND: Hey look, you're on Wing Staff, right?

STAFFER: Right.

BAND: And you're supposed to take care of cadet problems, right?

STAFFER: Right.

BAND: So do something about it!

STAFFER: It's not a cadet problem.

BAND: But we're cadets, ain't we?

STAFFER: Yeah...

BAND: So where are we gonna practice?

STAFFER: I don't know, it's not my job.

BAND: Well then what is your job?

STAFFER: You can't practice here anymore.
