Dodo staff

Hi guys and gals! Doug said something about taking some "chemicals" with Harry Chapin's bass player (both chem majors?) and left me to present this issue.

The censor is alive and well and living in Harmon Hall (hint: Nav 470 uses his shoulders to practice celestial nav) Last issue, Gen. B (modeling only a star and a smile) got the ax, so he's back in this issue in more suitable attire. (Nope,)

Special Recognition (and a free ^{sorry} Dodo Dinner in Club Mitchell) goes to Stan Crisp ('78 CS-25) and Warren "heels" Snow ('79 CS-05) for their contributions. If YOU want YOUR NAME in the Dodo (or would like to keep it out) send your ideas, cartoons, etc. (especially etc.) to any staff member.

Two issues in two months—this may be contagious! Watch out Taloin!

DODO is an unofficial humor magazine published in the interests of cadets at the United States Air Force Academy. It is published by cadets, a group in no way connected with the Department of the Air Force. Opinions expressed by the publishers and writers are their own and are not to be considered an official expression by the Department of the Air Force. The appearance of satirical advertisements in this publication, including inserts and supplements, does not constitute an endorsement by the Department of the Air Force of the products or services advertised. The articles appearing in DODO are fictitious, as are the characters, and any similarity between them and reality is purely accidental.
