EDITORIAL

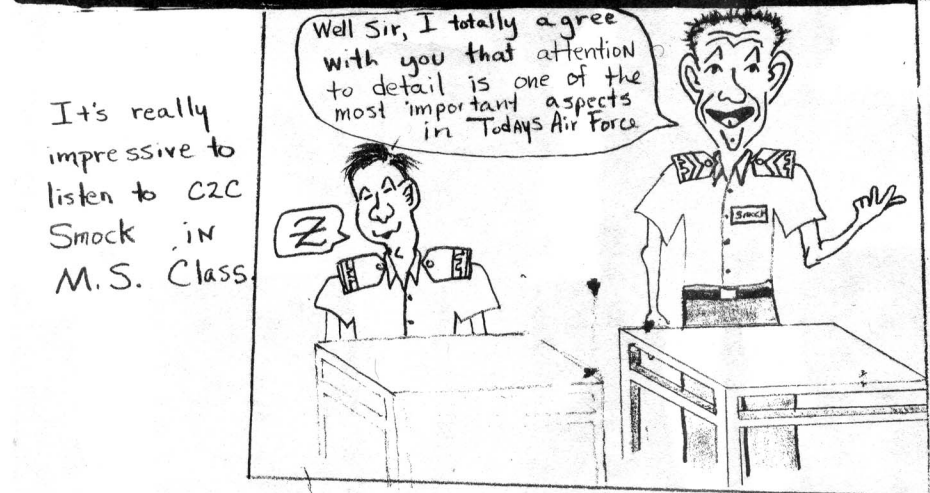

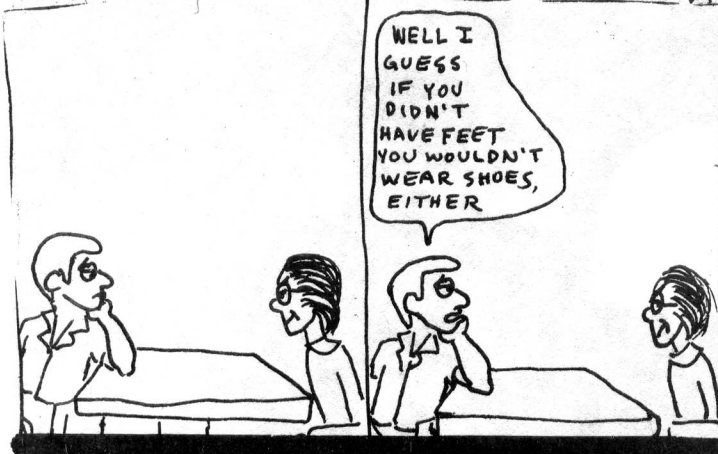

Hello again, devoted fans and loyal cadets! Due to the success of the October issue, the staff got so psyched up that we reached down deep into the crevices of our minds to come up with the absolute best humor since Ms Betty Friedan (who appears incognito in this issue).

I would like to extend a big thanks to C1C Lindner and C2C Finkle for their contributions that appear within this rag (don't worry, Mr. Anonymous from 3rd sqdn, yours will show up eventually), and invite the whole wing to follow their example. The more contributions we get, the funnier we'll be.

So keep your pens going and no one will ever be able to say that Air Force cadets don't have a sense of humor.

Enjoy!

Doug Morris

It's really impressive to listen to C2C Smock in M.S. Class.

BUT -
Just wait till he gets nailed for having his elbows on the table

DODO is an unofficial humor magazine published in the interests of cadets at the United States Air Force Academy. It is published by cadets, a group in no way connected with the Department of the Air Force. Opinions expressed by the publishers and writers are their own and are not to be considered an official expression by the Department of the Air Force. The appearance of commercial advertisements in this publication, including inserts and supplements, does not constitute an endorsement by the Department of the Air Force of the products or services advertised. The articles appearing in DODO are fictitious, as are the characters, and any similarity between them and reality is purely accidental.
