Hi, cadets and cadettes,
and welcome to another season of good Dodo humor.

All I have to say this month is to repeat our invitation for all of you to send in your humor. We accept material from anybody, (in case you hadn't noticed).

DODO is an unofficial humor magazine published in the interests of cadets at the United States Air Force Academy. It is published by cadets, a group in no way connected with the Department of the Air Force. Opinions expressed by the publishers and writers are their own and are not to be considered an official expression by the Department of the Air Force. The appearance of editorial advertisements in this publication, including inserts and supplements, does not constitute an endorsement by the Department of the Air Force of the products or services advertised. The articles appearing in DODO are fictitious, as are the characters, and any similarity between them and reality is purely coincidental.

Cadet Regulation Amendments

Effective: 3 Jan 78

1. Cadets may watch TV during Call-to-quarters if they have above a 3.92 cum GPA and are the illegitimate son of Einstein. Cadets may watch TV after taps unless it's dark out.
2. Cadets accumulating 75% of their demerit limit will be issued a new pair of Bates Floataways and forced to wear them out. If a cadet accumulates 100% of his demerit limit, he will be drawn and quartered and his remains given to Mitchell Hall.
3. Highly Outstanding Merit Order Students who are blind or otherwise deformed may now enter pilot training. However, their seeing-eye dogs must be correctable to 20/20.

Jimmy Cadet. Cute. Winsome. Unfortunately, he is very poor. He has never owned a color TV or a horse. He cannot even buy an automobile. You could help Jimmy. For only $300 a month, he could be behind the wheel of a 'Vette. He will send you letters and pictures. C'mon, lend a hand. He needs you.

AFA to cut strength by half

USAFA(UPI)- The office of Accounting and Finance at the US Air Force Academy received word recently from the Office of Management and Budget in Washington that the administrative costs of operating 40 squadrons of cadets have become so high that the Academy will have to reduce the number of cadet squadrons by half.

Cadets, however, have become so attached to their present squadrons that the officer chain foresees a massive wingwide drop in morale, not to mention riots and Mitchell Hall food fights. In an effort to minimize these adverse effects, the Commandant of Cadets, Brig Gen Stanley C. Beck (known affectionately as "who?" to cadets), has decided to combine squadrons in such a way that all cadets can still relate to their former squadrons and feel the pride that exists in the wing now.

The following squadron combinations and patches have been proposed and are now under consideration. The office of the Commandant will make a final decision within a short time.

1. Cadets are no longer permitted to abuse the peanut butter.
2. The only food that can be removed from Mitchell Hall is an individual's portion of fresh fruit, except at breakfast. We realize that breakfast is the only meal that serves fruit, but we can't please everybody. Pre-packaged food such as potato chips, corn chips, cow chips, or candy bars can be removed from Mitchell Hall on any T-day with a full moon.
3. Any cadet caught removing food from Mitchell Hall will be written up for gross poor taste and then forced to eat a double portion of breakfast eggs at the next squadron meeting.
4. Cadets caught feeding the rats will be written up for cruelty to dumb animals.
5. Cadets asking for seconds will be escorted to Mental Health by a red-coat.
6. The kitchen shall not be used for thoroughfare. Any cadet caught cutting through the kitchen will be fried to a crackly crunch.
7. Any cadet knowing what the term "wax poetic" means will not have to eat his vegetables that day.
8. No cadet may leave the dining hall before the regurgitating lamp is lit.
