Letter from the Editor

Hey there sports fans! How 'bout them Falcons, eh? Well, it's time again for another edition of The DODO (pronounced dō-dō, incidentally.) In this issue we bring you a barrage of great pages, including a first look at The Adventures of Biff & Lumpoe (destined to become a classic.) So take a break - sit back and enjoy The DODO, man.

Stu

P.S. A word of caution: The DODO may be considered as incriminating evidence if found in your room during a health, welfare & "morale" inspections. So be careful, amigos.

USAFAs Believe it... or Rot!

MAGPIES ARE NOT NATIVE TO THE ACADEMY, BUT WERE SENT TO USAFA AS A "GIFT" FROM THE SOVIET UNION DURING THE HEIGHT OF THE COLD WAR! BELIEVE IT OR ROT!

"TERRAZZO" IS NOT AN ENGLISH WORD NOR ONE OF ANY KNOWN LANGUAGE! IT WAS FOUND ENGRAVED ON A STRANGE, GLOWING GREEN METEORITE WHICH LANDED NEAR SPIRIT HILL IN 1960. BELIEVE IT OR ROT!

CONTRARY TO POPULAR BELIEF, DINOSAURS DID NOT "ROAM THE TERRAZZO" DURING THE LATE 1950s AND EARLY 1960s. IN FACT, THE BIG LUGS HAVE BEEN EXTINCT FOR OVER A MILLION YEARS! BELIEVE IT OR ROT!

"The new editor"

THE ADVENTURES OF Biff and Lumpoe

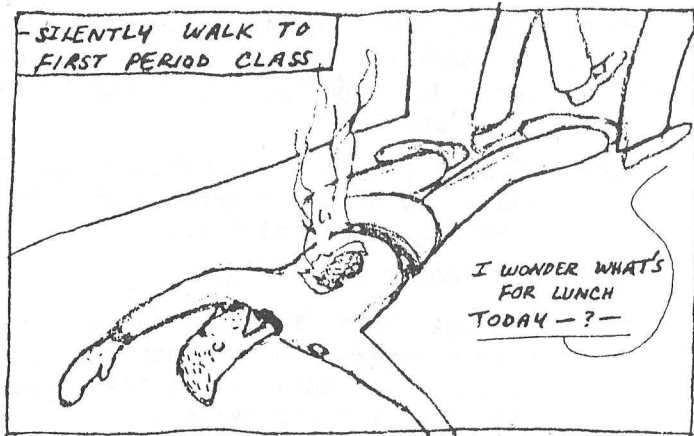

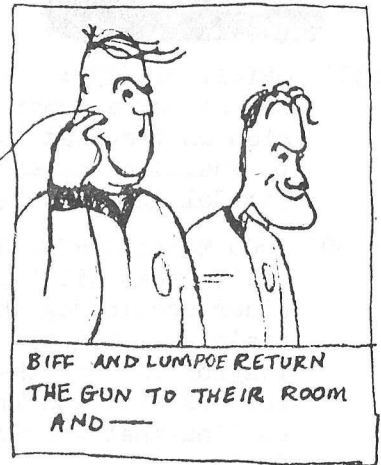

At times, serious injustices are taken too lightly; we'd like to illustrate this fact.

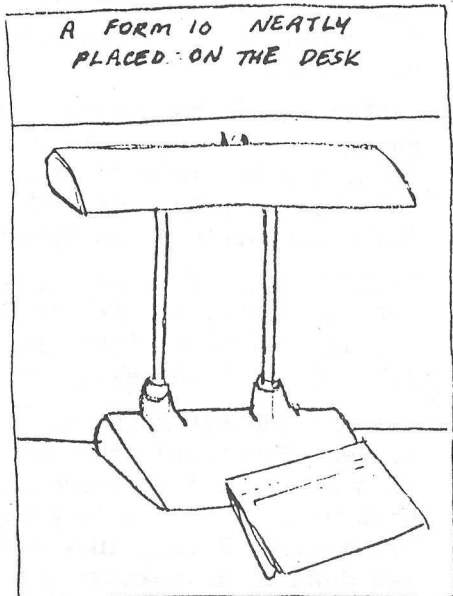

- BUT, BEFORE THE BLINK OF AN EYE, BIFF LOWERS THE GUN, AND - KNOCKS STROOT'S GLASSES OFF AND RUINS HIS A-JACKET!

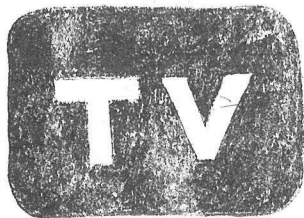

- SILENTLY WALK TO FIRST PERIOD CLASS

LATER THAT AFTERNOON, AFTER LMD, BIFF AND LUMPE RETURN TO THEIR ROOM TO FIND -

END....

Guidon

- 0330 SPIRIT MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE/C4C Jim and C4C Barney attempt a daring spirit mission on the Flat Iron but are captured by guerilla forces of the PDR. C4C Jim: Tim Collins, C4C Barney: Atwell Williams
- 0530 GOOD MORNING RUN, AMERICA/C3C Traynor again takes his fun-loving 40s on another scenic jog through some of America's most beautiful areas. Today, C3C Traynor chooses the state of Montana for his run. C3C Traynor: Steve Benz, Doolies-that-drop-out: see Wing Alpha Roster.
- 0730 AOC CLUB/The panel of AOCs will today gather to discuss such pressing issues as who will play who in raquetball and where to eat lunch.
- 0800 WALLY'S COMM SHOP/Today Wally shows how to construct a tour pad in your own back yard! Wally: Gen. Beckel, Wally's Helper: Col. Wilkenson.
- 0900 PLAY THE GAME/(Gameshow)Host C.W. Eye-teeth leads contestants through a non-stop half-hour of fun and prizes. Contestents must all break regs simultaneously and discreetly while the celebrity panel attempts to catch them. The contestent who is caught last wins the grand prize--a reg book personally autographed by the Commandant of Cadets! Losers receive Forms 10.
- 0930 ABSOLUTELY NOTHING/That's right...We've chosen this opportunity to provide you with absolutely nothing. Why not read a novel or write that letter you've been putting off? Or, why not call a friend and talk about absolutely nothing..
- 1000 NAME THAT HIT/(Gameshow)Host Rick Reggs instructs rival contestents to 'name that hit' after they bid down to the number of words they think it will take to recognize a mystery reg. The words are then read out of a reg book and the contestents must name the prescribed max hit for violation of that reg. Winners validate the PCE, losers win a trip to the tour pad.
- 1030 GILLIGAN'S SQUADRON/Gilligan runs into trouble when Mary Ann threatens to hit him with sexual harassment. The laughs continue when the Skipper makes Comm's List and won't talk to his old friends. (REPEAT)
- 1100 BE-SWITCHED/The laughs abound when Endora switches the entire 3^o, soon to be 2^o, class into different squadrons. Imagine the confusion as Samantha tries to restore order! (REPEAT)
- 1130 THE BECKEL BUNCH/The whole family is in an uproar when Marsha wants to go out with a cadet. (REPEAT)
- 1200 THE 1200 O'CLOCK NEWS
- 1230 CADET PERSPECTIVE/Cadets sit around and complain about just about everything.
- 1300 THE STRACK AND THE HAIRLESS/(Soap Opera) Frank can't decide how to tell Tom he's getting close around the ears while Dave ponders whether to write Bill up for messing around with Jessica.
- 1400 HAZE OF OUR LIVES/(Soap Opera)Basic Cadet Douglas falls in love with his Element Sergeant but she is involved with the Log Officer, C1C Lumbar, which drives Douglas to make a suicide pact with Basic Cadet Marley, whose girlfriend just kissed him off.
- 1500 WILD, WILD REST/Jim and Artemus come back from class and crash for an hour. (REPEAT)
- 1600 SESAME TERRAZZO/Big Bird Colonel and the Bogie Monster teach the kids how to count to 120 per today. Special appearance by the letters I, R, and I.
- 1700 GENERAL ORTH'S NEIGHBORHOOD/Today Gen. Orth talks about the importance of NOT sharing during quizzes and G.R.s.
- 1800 THE 1800 O'CLOCK NEWS
- 1830 THE QUAD SQUAD/The Quad Squad visits another scenic quadrangle, discussing the best places to lay their towels and identifying the locations of the sprinklers.
- 1900 BACK TO BASICS/(Sit-Com)Various Academy Grads are returned to their old USAFA BCT Squadrons for a half-hour of non-stop training and lots of laughs.
- 1930 WAUDE/Waude's big mouth gets her in trouble again when she tells her Flight Sergeant all about her big television contract with Lt. Col. Norman Lear, not realizing that T.V. deals are strictly an upperclass privilege.
- 2000 KELLY'S ANGELS/The excitement runs high when it's up to Kelly's Angels to bust up an international Class Ring. Kelly: General Kelley Jill: General Beckel, Sabrina: General Orth.
- 2100 ACADEMY BOULEVARD/(Drama)On this episode of Academy Boulevard, the evil G. R. threatens to take control of Academy Boulevard unless Miss Quizzie agrees to give him custody of his son, G. R., Jr. Inevitably, G. R. is gunned down by an unknown assassin, prompting the the question, "Who shot G. R.?"

- 2200 MAGNUM IRI/It's another IRI for the Cadet Wing. But this one is different; this inspection is going to change the lives of everyone involved because this is MAGNUM IRI.
- 2300 THE 2300 O'CLOCK NEWS
- 2330 THE LATELITE SHOW/Tonight, Host Johnny Fortcarson interviews guests Ronald Begin, Prime Minister of Israel, along with anthropologist-actress Ann-Margaret Mead and singer-songwriter Johnny Parka, along with his group, The Accessories, who sing the hit song from their new album "Dark Ages"
- 2400 USAFA 5-0/Once again, C3C McGarrett gets the minimum hit, 5-0, for his outrageous conduct on this not-so-hard-hitting series.
- 0100 SERE TREK/C4C "Mister" Spock and C/Captain Kirk encounter new life forms in their C-Rations. (REPEAT)
- 0200 THE 0200 MOVIE/"Car Wars" - A short time ago in a parking lot far, far, away... Car Wars - the story of a long journey from the planet of LOT 81 to Starbase Sijan. Starring Joe Cadet as Luke Skywalker and Lou Zatitus as Darth Vator.

Things You've Always Wanted to Say to Your AOC!

AOC: Is this room in A.M.I.?

You: No, it's in B-Flight.

AOC: Are those your best shoes, mister?

You: No, but my yellow Adidas' clash with my uniform.

AOC: This room is cluttered!

You: Yeah, but it's home.

AOC: Don't you greet officers, mister?

You: Why, do you see one coming?

AOC: Turn down your stereo!

You: What?

AOC: Can I get in the trunk room?

You: I don't know. How tall are you?

AOC: This squadron is doing lousy in marching!

You: Don't worry - it's just a fad.

AOC: Mister, do you know proper decorum?

You: Maybe. Could you hum a few bars?

Record Review

by Stu "Manchu" Pope

"WING'S GREATEST" by Paul McCadetny and the Wing

Since the breakup of The Bogies in 1970, Paul McCadetny has been a major influence in the world of Pop Music, even more so than the other ex-Bogies, George Harassment, Ringo SAR, and the late John Tennon-Three. McCadetny's latest release, WING'S GREATEST, caps the first ten years of his band, The Wing, and includes such hits as "Band Eating Mung", "Junior's Zoo", and "Silly BCT Songs". Let's hope Paul McCadetny and The Wing continue to crank out great albums throughout the rest of the '80's.

"HIGHWAY TO THE GYM" by AOC/DC

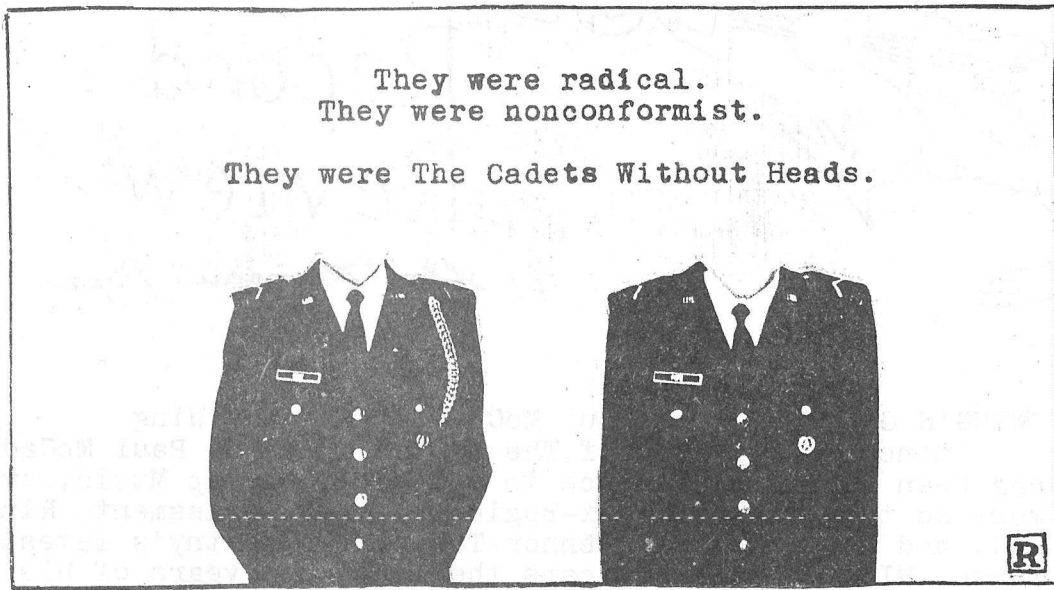

Well, fans, it seems heavy metal has reached a new low with AOC/DC's latest release, HIGHWAY TO THE GYM. Ill-conceived and poorly executed, HIGHWAY TO THE GYM was even recorded in the racquetball courts of the Cadet Gymnasium, studios notorious for their dismal acoustics. After success with IF YOU WANT A FORM TEN, YOU'VE GOT IT, AOC/DC apparently has become overconfident, as is evidenced by the release of this dog. However, Capt. Angus Mung, spokesman for the group, assures us that AOC/DC's next release, tentatively called BACK IN BLUE, will be a real winner, so keep your ears pierced, rockers.

"DANCING BEARS" by The Dancing Bears

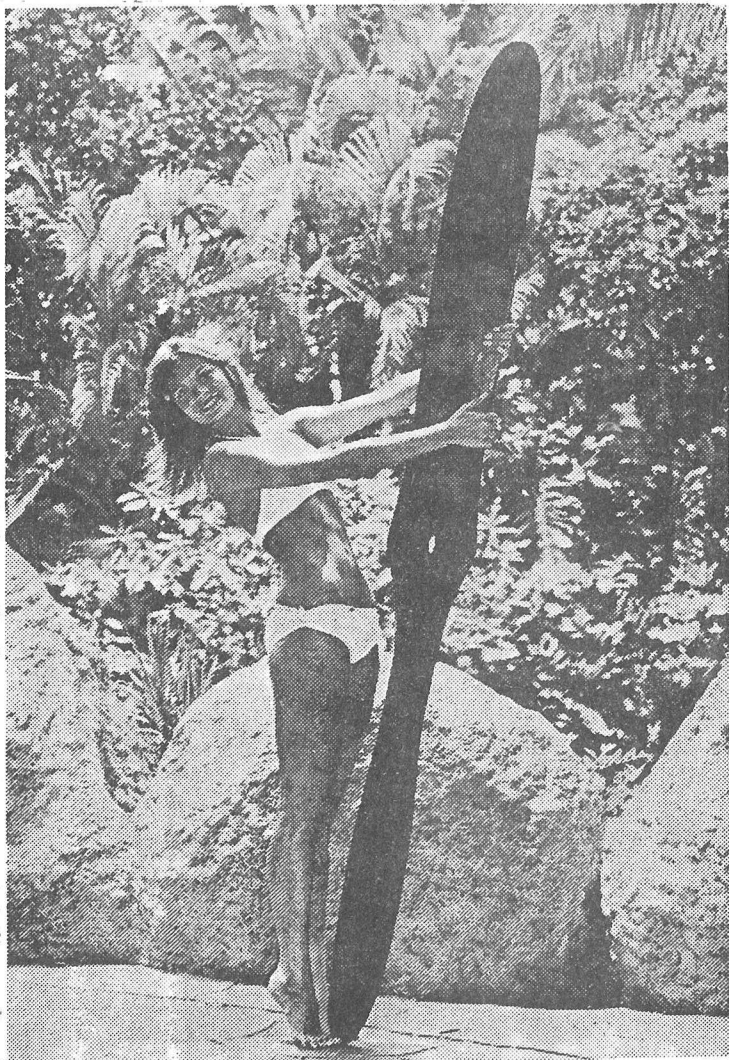

After many years with a small but loyal following, The Dancing Bears have finally released their first album, simply entitled DANCING BEARS. The DB's, as their name implies, not only sing, but dance too. In fact, they'll dance for any authority figure, which is undoubtedly their inspiration for the first song on the album, "Just a Song and Dance before I Go", as well as other tunes, including "Dance, Dance, Dance", "I Wanna Be Your Slave", and a novel variation of the B-52's classic "Dance the Mess Around" entitled "Please Let Me Dance For You (I Ain't no Lowly Wad)". Always eager to please, the DB's will be touring the Academy during the next several weeks - check your activities board for dates and places.

THE CADETS WITHOUT HEADS
a Dodo DiLaurentis Production

Congratulations, fourth classmen! You've earned your 'prop and wings'. Wish I could've been there to pin them on you. Well, anyway, I hope everyone had a terrific Spring Break! Um, let's see... oh yeah, coming up in the June issue of DoDo is the New Improved S.E.R.E. Weight Loss Program, a DODOFODO, and, oh, gosh, lots more! Don't miss it!

Love,

Dodette
