IN-FLIGHT

DODO

CLASS OF 1999

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE ACADEMY

Welcome back! And it's great to be back, and to see all the new things they've dreamed up for us during the summer. For example: more SAMI/Parades, less passes, new supt., new furniture, new construction, more fire alarms, less spirit dinners (what do they expect when they make the theme "punk" and serve LEMON MERENGUE PIES??), a new fall TV lineup, etc... Oh, I haven't forgot the new form ten and lll-1. It's a shame to think of the number of trees that gave their lives for that [REDACTED]. And sure, it's only 15/15 for drinking in the dorms, but so what when you can surpass your one-month demerit limit by picking your nose four times in public. ONP's are only for one night this year--WKP's are for the whole weekend. But don't worry, there are maybe three free weekends this semester where you can use them. You get kicked out immediately for sex in the dorms, but you get two chances for DUI's. (Priorities? Has anybody ever been killed by.....on second thought...)

Looking on the bright side, the 21 club might be open Tuesdays. Seriously, we've got to put up with a lot of [REDACTED] during our stay at USAFA. You need a sense of humor to make it through with your sanity (some classes didn't; i.e...) So welcome to the first issue of DODO for the year. If something about this place strikes you as funny, and you want the world to laugh with you, send it to DODO, through Wing Media, me, or any convenient staff writer. If you want to change policy, use your cadet chain, or climb Eagle Peak during a raging storm, strip naked, and summon the powers above. Either method will be as effective. Seriously, the wing commander has told me that his door is open. But that was during the morning AMI period, from 0705 to 1155 hours. And he is allowed to close his door when occupying the room, and may dress comfortably (i.e., remove coat, tie, and so forth), but as a minimum must wear footwear, trousers or skirt, and undershirt or blouse.

The G.T. may change, but DODO is as it was and will be, the only cadet publication by and for cadets. So enjoy, and feel free to write in the margins; this copy won't be used for other G.R.s and doesn't need to be handed in.

USAF Academy Cadet Decorum

HANDSHAKING

This regulation describes the shaking of hands; when it is acceptable; and prescribes minimum standards for the shaking of hands.

1. PHILOSOPHY. Military decorum requires high standards of saying hello, which enable military personnel to perform their unit's mission. As officer candidates Air Force Academy cadets are expected to observe these social standards of handshaking integral to the commissioned officer corps. What would happen if you meet your boss, a three-star general, and you give him a big kiss on the lips? Well, buddy, let's just say you'd look pretty damn stupid. Observations of these standards marks them as disciplined, professional military men and women, worthy of commissions in the United States Air Force.

2. GENERAL. USAF Academy cadets will use their right hand when shaking hands, unless they are using their left hand in place thereof, such as when they have stuff all over their hand, and it is a pretty disgusting thing altogether.

3. PROPER SHAKE OF THE HAND.

a. Acceptable:

- (1) Firm.
- (2) Double-pump.

b. Not Acceptable at Any Time:

- (1) High-fives.
- (2) Low-fives.
- (3) Limp.
- (4) Dead-fish type.
- (5) When you have stuff all over it.

DEAR SAMI →

By

Sami Eastbrick

SAMI EASTBRICK is a syndicated DODO columnist, as well as 1963 graduate and current commandant of a major midwestern military academy. Sami gives answers to questions involving information and advice and can be contacted by sending you requests to SAMI, C/O The Dodo, Cadet Wing Media.

"TO HELL WITH THE BEEF, WHERE'S SAMI?"

Dear Sami,
Boy do we have problems: we are percussionists with the drum and bugle corps at a major midwestern military academy. Here's the problem: every time we play for our noon meal formation, we lose all sense of rhythm, and the cadets who march can't keep in step properly. What can we do about this ugly situation? We really feel badly that we contribute to sloppy marching - and with our regular season quickly approaching, we need your advice. Yours most sincerely, RHYTHMLESS FLYERS OF SOUND

DEAR RHYTHMLESS FLYERS,
LET ME START BY SAYING THAT BACK IN '63 WE HAD ONE OF THE BEST DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS A MILITARY ACADEMY HAD EVER SEEN. IN FACT, THOSE GUYS HAD IT A LOT TOUGHER BACK THEN - WITH DAILY INSPECTIONS, PARADES IN 3 FEET OF SNOW, AND A FOURTH CLASS YEAR THAT PUTS TO SHAME ALL OF THE CLASSES THAT FOLLOWED. BUT ANYWAY, AFTER CONSULTING WITH SOME CLASSMATES OF MINE WHO PLAYED PERCUSSION INSTRUMENTS BACK IN '60 AND '61, THEY SUGGEST THAT YOU FELLA'S BUY A METRONOME, OR ONE OF THOSE FANCY LITTLE JOGGING WATCHES THAT CAN KEEP A CONSTANT 120 BEAT PER MINUTE PACE. (WE EVEN HAD TO MARCH FASTER BACK IN '63.)

DEAR 1987'ER,
LET ME START BY SAYING THAT BACK IN '63, WE DIDN'T EVEN DREAM ABOUT GETTING COOKIES DURING BASIC TRAINING. OUR BCT WAS THE TOUGHEST AND MEANEST THAT EVER WAS, OR HAS BEEN, AT ANY MILITARY ACADEMY. IN FACT, WHEN I WAS A DOOL, WE WERE ONLY ALLOWED TO EAT MATZO BREAD AND AN OCCASIONAL DRINK OF WATER. BUT, ANSWERING YOUR QUESTION, AS A PHYSICS MAJOR, I'M NOT TOO FAMILIAR WITH THE CHEMICAL BREAKDOWN OF THE COOKIES YOU WERE MOST GENEROUSLY (A POOR TRAINING PHILOSOPHY IN MY OPINION) ALLOWED TO EAT. IF YOU REALLY WOULD LIKE TO KNOW, TALK TO SOMEONE FROM 1984 (BAKERS GALORE).

Dear Sami,
Please help me out of this dilemma: I'm the superintendent of a major midwestern military academy, and the graduate of an east coast military institution wracked by tradition. My first name is Charles, but my dilemma is in trying to choose what I should let people call me. Should I let them call me Charles, or Charley, Chuck, or Chaz, or just "C?" My fellow flag officers are very confused, as are some of the fourthclass cadets who have to recite my name when giving the chain-of-command. Please help me. "BOSS" TO YOU

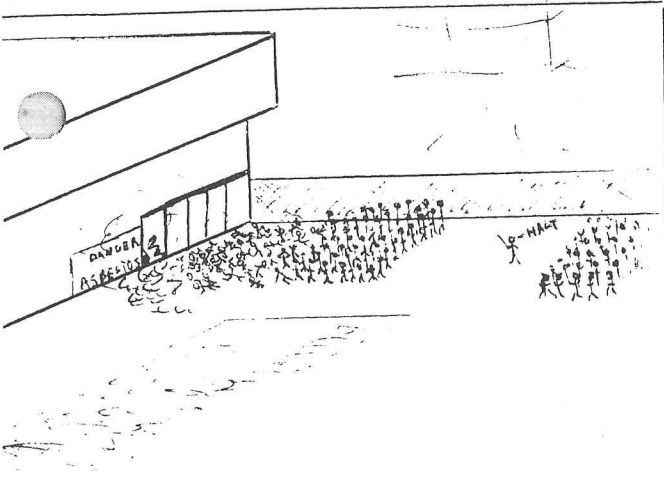

DEAR BOSS,
LET ME START BY SAYING THAT BACK IN '63, THINGS WERE A LOT TOUGHER. WE WERE NEVER CALLED BY OUR FIRST NAMES, ONLY OUR LAST. I DON'T KNOW HOW THINGS WERE OVER AT HUDSON HIGH, BUT AT MY ACADEMY, I NEVER EVEN THOUGHT OF CALLING SOMEONE, OR BEING CALLED BY MY FIRST NAME, OR ANY NICKNAME FOR THAT MATTER. IT WAS ALWAYS "EASTBRICK THIS, OR EASTBRICK THAT," I HAD NO CHOICE. THINGS WERE A LOT TOUGHER IN '63, A LOT TOUGHER. IN FACT, WE WEREN'T EVEN ALLOWED TO CALL OUR PARENTS BY "MOM" OR "DAD," IT HAD TO BE "MOM MA'AM" OR "DAD SIR." THIS RULE WAS STRICTLY ENFORCED TOO! BUT ANYWAY, GETTING BACK TO YOUR QUESTION, I WOULD SUGGEST THAT YOU LET PEOPLE CALL YOU WHATEVER THEY FEEL COMFORTABLE WITH, I MEAN, THEY CAN CALL YOU "C," OR THEY CAN CALL YOU CHUCK, OR THEY CAN CALL YOU CHARLEY, BUT THEY DOESN'T HAVE TO CALL YOU SIR.

Dear Sami,
Where can I get the recipe for those cookies I had back in basic training? They were oh so tasty, and filling too! A PROUD MEMBER OF 1987 (WINGS)? FROM HEAVEN

THE KNOB

CHAPTER ONE:

ELROY EXPLAINS THE VIRTUE OF A GOOD TUCK TO BILL AND GARY.

HEY BILLY, YOU BETTER GET A TUCK BEFORE YOU GO OUT IN THE HALL.

HOSE OFF
ELROY! YOU'RE SUCH A ~~FOOL~~ GEEK!

CADET JACKSON IS GOING TO LIGHT YOU UP OUT THERE!

GO GROW SOME HAIR ELROD!

YEAH ELROD - SHUT YOUR LITTLE GEEK FACE!

YOU GUYS JUST DON'T CARE ABOUT THE PURPOSE BEHIND A GOOD TUCK ITS THE PRINCIPLE OF THE THING, I MEAN WHATS GOING TO HAPPEN WHEN YOU'RE FLYING YOUR F-15? IT ALL STARTS HERE! AND STOP CALLING ME ELROD!

LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT, ELROD. YOU MEAN TO TELL ME THAT IF I DON'T HAVE A GOOD TUCK, I'M GOING TO CRASH MY F-15?

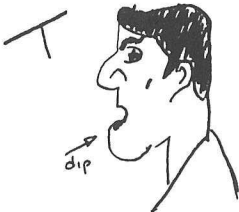

YEP!

AND THAT ALL I HAVE TO DO IS START EVERY DAY OFF WITH A GOOD, TIGHT, TUCK - O - THE - HET AND EVERYTHING WILL JUST FALL RIGHT INTO PLACE?

YEP!

WELL, IT SEEMS TO ME THAT THERE IS A PROBLEM WITH YOUR REASONING, ELROD. I MEAN, YOU HAVE A GOOD, TIGHT TUCK...

YES... AND...?

... BUT YOUR LIFE IS FALLING APART MAN. I MEAN, YOU DON'T SEE MY AND BILL'S LAUNDRY OUT IN THE QUAD, DO YA? SEEMS LIKE THAT OL' TUCK IS A LAUNDRY REPELLANT TO ME

YEAH MAN, JUST LOOK AT ALL OF YOUR CLOTHES DOWN THERE, NIMROD.

WELL, THEN LETS JUST FORGET I EVER SAID ANYTHING, OKAY? IS IT OKAY FELLAS?

YEAH I THOUGHT SO ELROD

BETTER GET DOWN TO THE QUAD ELROD... A MOPRE IS STEALIN YOUR UNDERWEAR

FOR POLICE:

1. "But honestly, officer, I didn't know it was loaded."
2. "But honestly, officer, I didn't know I was that loaded."
3. "Hell, I was drunk."
4. "I've never been away from home before, you see; and the removal of the strain of parental discipline and authority has led me to do these acts for which I am being jailed. It's all psychological, my good man."
5. "Aw, officer, weren't you young once?"
6. "Everyone kept yelling different directions to me, so what could I do but stop in the middle of the intersection to find out where I was at?"
7. "I could never blow a balloon up when I was sober, how should I be able to do it now?"
8. "Hell, I was drunk."

FOR THE MAYOR:

1. "This is a very nice town you have here, sir. Yes, indeed, very nice."
2. "But in the movie everyone did it."
3. "Hell, I was drunk."
4. "I couldn't see the sign, your honor. It was completely covered by beer cans."
5. "Aw, Mr. Mayor, weren't you young once?"
6. "I was so overwhelmed by the scenic beauty of your gorgeous state and city that I lost complete track of what I was doing."
7. "They're all lying to you, sir."
8. "Hell, I was drunk."

FOR THE GIRL'S FATHER:

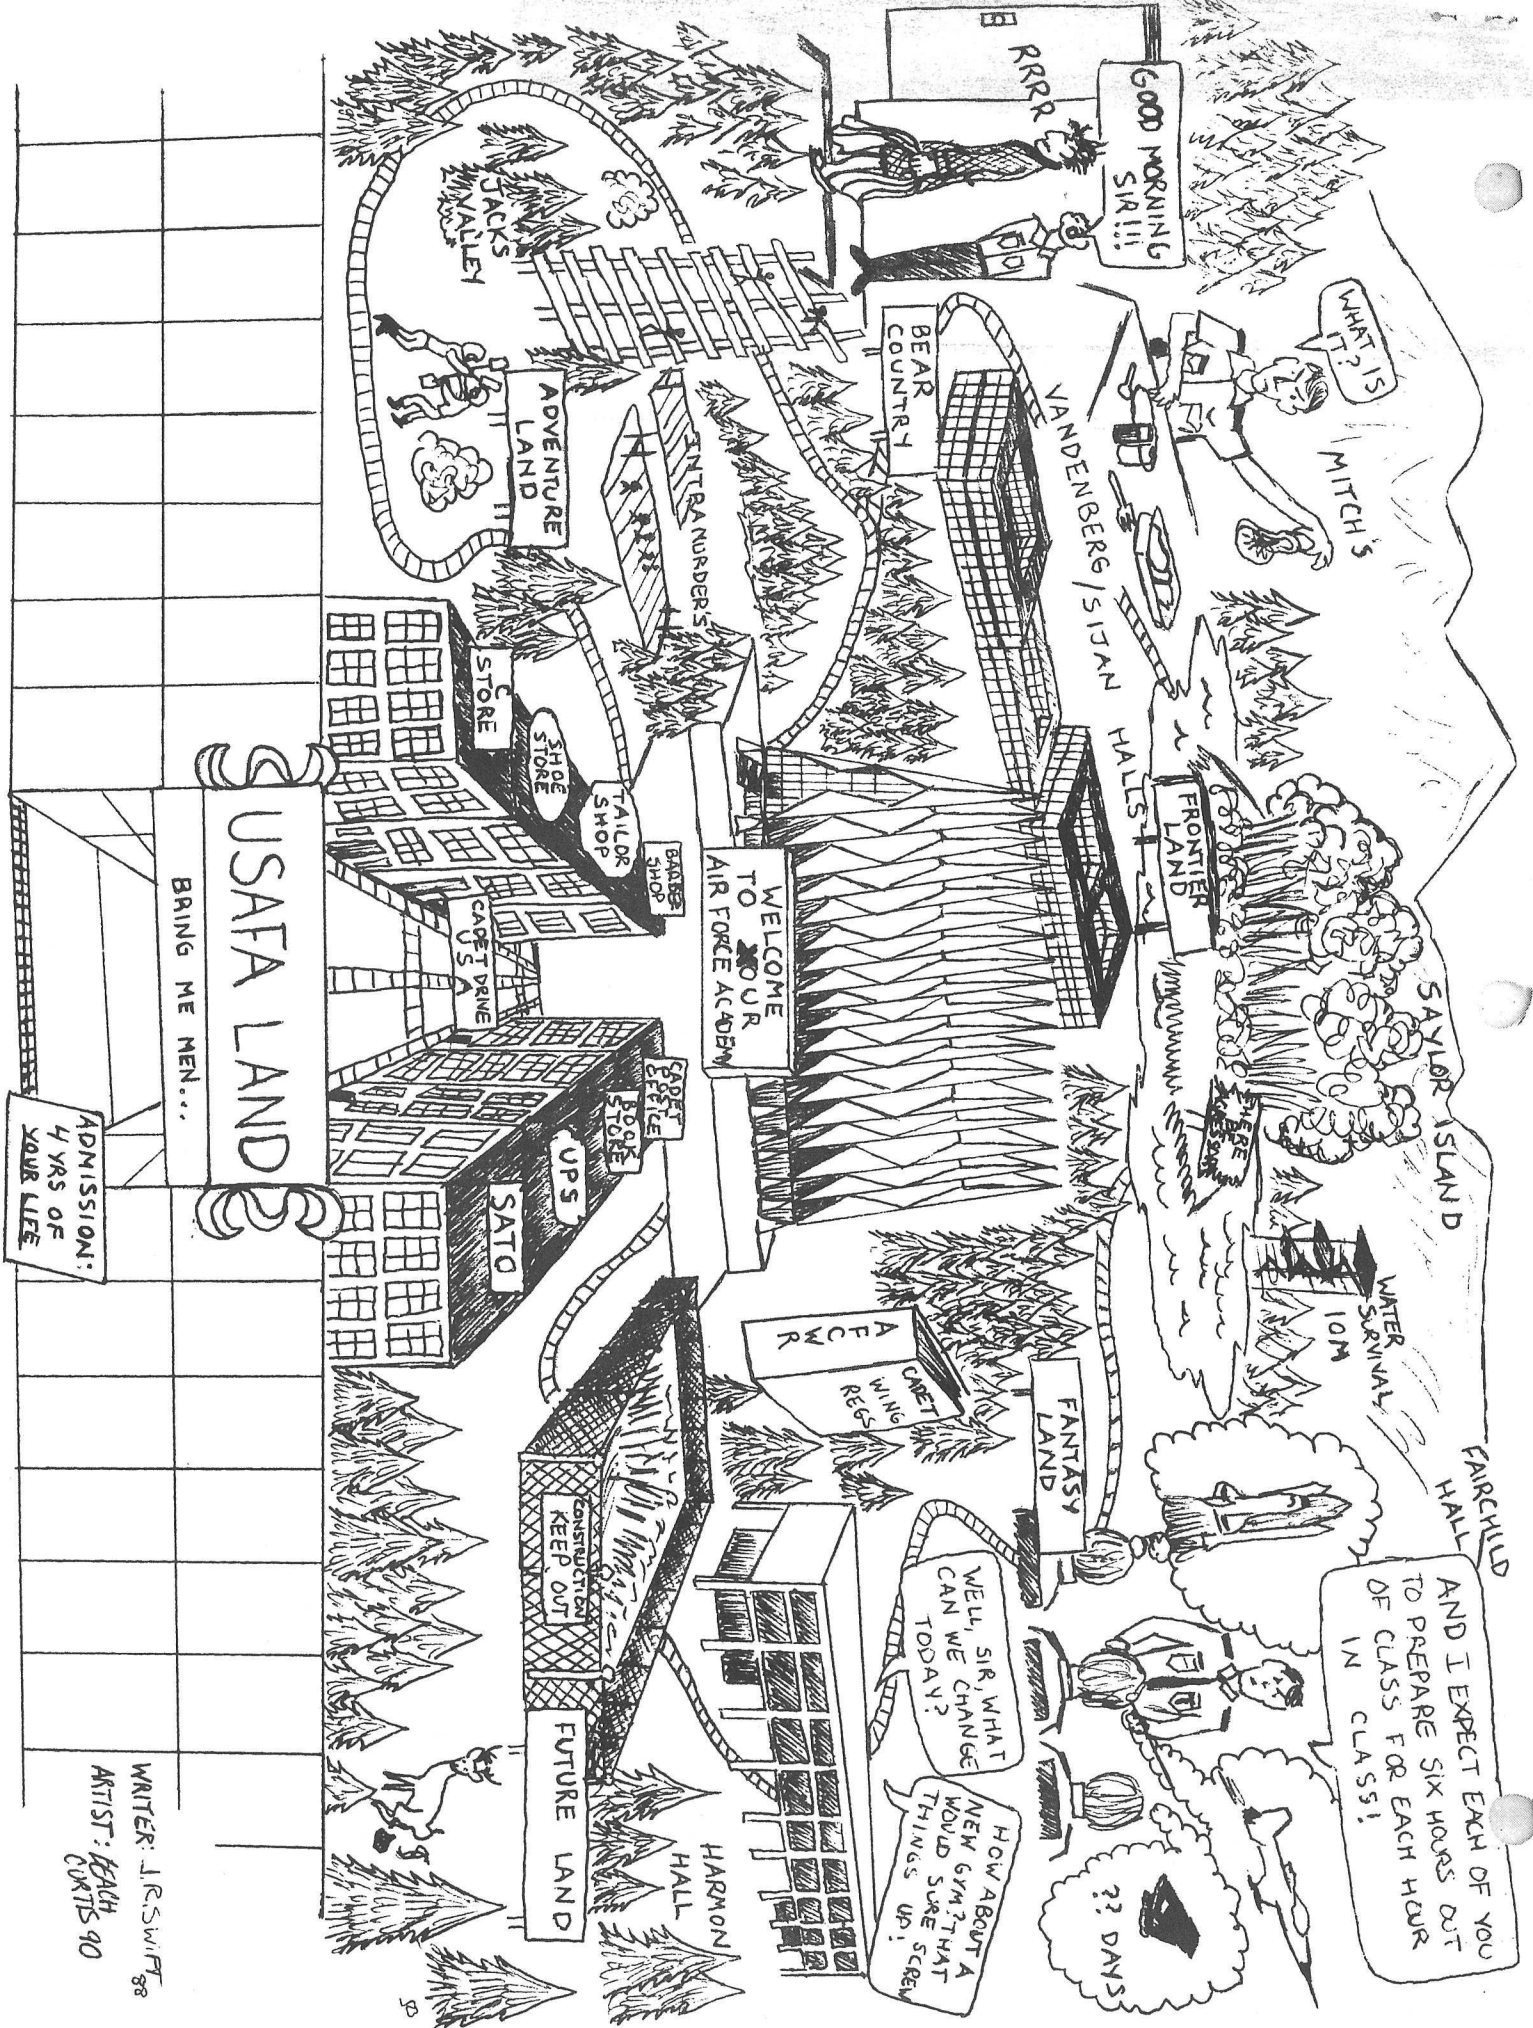

1. "As they say, sir, 'It takes two to tango.'"
2. "The moon was full and the warm water was lapping about our feet and there we were. Nature destined it, sir."
3. "Weren't you ever young, sir? Oh you were. Well, that shoots that."
4. "Hell, I was drunk."
5. "My brother says that experience is the best teacher."
6. "We both had one too many, sir."
7. "It was destiny."
8. "Hell, I was drunk."

FOR YOUR PARENTS
UPON YOUR RETURN HOME:

1. "Would you believe them and doubt your own flesh and blood?"
2. "If you hadn't been so strict with me none of this would have happened."
3. "I'm a schizo."
4. "Hell, I was drunk."
5. "I don't know any of those people you mentioned. Should I?"
6. "Aw, folks, weren't you young once?"
7. "Finals were so hard; I had to let steam off some way, didn't I?"
8. "Hell, I was drunk."
