THE DODO MEETS
LT. DUTY!!

T. TUNG

Welcome Back.

Of course we've been back for three months, but you know the budget cuts that have hit USAFA lately. They had to funnel the money for the Jan & Feb. Dodo's into another marble stairwell in Fairchild Hall. Yeah, how 'bout that construction. You've probably noticed how they fixed up the Comm's shop in no time, but they haven't even attempted to work on the terrazo between Sijan and Mitchell Hall in 5 months. What a contracting coup— even when they do get it finished they're going to have to tear it up and put the other marble (As near the chapel) in. About as smart as putting the 'new' new furniture in my room (Sijan) knowing darn well that they'd have to take it out ~~this~~ summer to put the carpet in. Oh, don't get me wrong, I love climbing five stories to go to bed. One day I didn't make it and fell asleep on the stepladder. The blinking of the NID woke me up, though. But that's not what I'm upset about; you know why. That's right, they cancelled Pia Zadora's concert. Why, I ask? Because not enough civillians bought tickets--they cancelled the show before they allowed cadets to buy tickets. Whose Arnold Hall is it anyway? What a way to treat an honorary Dodo staff member!

Well we're rapidly approaching spring break, and the end of another year. Keep those entries for the Joe Strack look-alike contest coming in, the winner will be announced in the next issue. We've been getting a lot of good material from throughout the wing also, keep it coming in. There's surely a multitude of hilarious stuff going on out there. Like the security stairwell. I thought that stuff went out when I was a four degree. But then what comes around goes around. We're doing IRIs again, but someone doesn't realize that they took our guns away!! What are they going to inspect, our ~~IRI~~???? I also heard a rumor that the rifle team's next match is mandatory for 3rd group. It might be a little crowded in that little shooting range, but hey.

Well, I gotta go. I have to get ready for the USAFA deer season.

EARLY ONE MORNING AT THE COMM SHOP

THE ALL NEW ADVENTURES OF BIP CARBINE, CADRE, USAFA HONOR GUARD

Hi, my name is Bip Carbine. You can just call me Bip if you want to, all my friends do. Well, I've only got one friend, but he calls me Bip. Did I mention I was on Honor Guard at the Air Force Academy? Yep, I sure am. Honor Guard is my life. It's my friend's life too. My friend's name is Clancy but we just call him Clank. Clank drops his weapon alot.

Have I told you I'm a cadre member on Honor Guard? Well, I am. To be honest, Honor Guard is the entire reason for my existence. Honor Guard gives me a sense of achievement, a feeling of belonging, a sure knowledge that I am a vital gear in the USAFA machine, and knowledge that Colorado Springs is safe for democracy. Well, I'm not too sure that I really help make Colorado Springs safe for democracy, but saying that really makes me feel important. I like to feel important. That's why I'm in The Guard. Honor Guard. Huzzah.

You know, I woke up yesterday morning, rolled off my bunk (seriously, I rolled off, it hurt like hell), looked into the mirror and said to myself, "Bip... You are somebody. You are The Guard. Bip Carbine, you will achieve greatness someday." I didn't believe it at first. Actually, I still don't. Well, what I mean is, I'm not sure that I'll achieve greatness outside of Honor Guard. Did I tell you that I am currently the Front Range District Multi-Spin and Twirl Rifle Toss Champion? Well, I guess I didn't tell you since I'm not. I lost last month to some ROTC puke from Boulder. I think the contest was rigged. All the judges were long haired, pot smoking civilians with beards and hair parted in the middle. No doubt they were all friends with that Ginsburg fella.

You know, I tell you why I'm in The Guard. (We insiders call it "The Guard." It's kind of an inside name. Most people call us Honor Guard.) Anyway, here's why I'm in The Guard. A couple mornings ago, I was up at the crack of dawn to shine my shoes. As I was shining my shoes I looked out the window and saw (well, before that, my roommate got up and got real ~~scared~~ that my alarm woke him up too) the sun rising up over the Eastern plains. I opened my window and felt a crispness in the air. I knew that later that glorious day I would be out in front of the General Dynamics F-16 Fighting Falcon drilling fourthclassmen up and down the Terazzo. Does that make sense to you? Just telling you about it give me little pitter patters in my heart. Well, I think they're pitter patters. Maybe they're more like puthump puthumpas. Well no, they're more like pitter patters. Anyway, that's why I'm in The Guard. It's not just spinning rifles, shining shoes, getting haircuts, and marching up and down the Terazzo. Nope, it's pitter patters in your heart.

Well, I've got to go; there's a training session going on in the SAR. I never miss training sessions. Training is a key to success. That's why I'm in The Guard. Honor Guard: Success and pitter patters. "Bip...You are somebody. You are The Guard." Yep, that's what I say. That's why I'm in The Guard.

A Candidate's Farewell

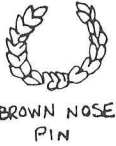

ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON, D.C.-- Democratic Presidential hopeful Bruce Babbitt withdrew from the race today, citing what he called 'improper saluting techniques that would lessen my credibility as Commander-in-Chief of the US Armed Forces.' Babbitt then proceeded to demonstrate this deficiency, which resulted in a salute that caused one retired Marine officer to later remark, 'That sucked to high hell!' It was noted, however, that Babbitt did have a good tuck and that the shine on his shoes was 'awe-inspiring'.

SAMI EASTBRICK
CARDMEMBER SINCE 1963

Dear Sami/Abby,
As a cadet at the U.S. Air Force Academy, I am expected to live honorably by "duty, honor and country." Now I have a question about ethics. I have a choice between $129 and honor. My dilemma is due to the fact that the Air Force Academy compensated me twice for the same private medical bill in the amount of $129. It's such a small amount compared to the national debt. Why not keep it? CADET, COLORADO SPRINGS.

DEAR CADET,
LET ME START BY SAYING THAT BACK IN '63, THINGS WERE A LOT TOUGHER. BACK THEN, IF WE WOULD HAVE COME ACROSS SOMEONE AS INCREDIBLY STUPID AS YOU, WE WOULD HAVE TIED HIM TO A LAUNDRY CART AND LEFT HIM OUT ON SPIRIT HILL UNTIL HIS FLESH STARTED TO ROT, AND THE MAGPIES BEGAN TO PECK AT HIS EYES AND NIBBLE AT HIS INTESTINES. THEN WE WOULD HAVE TAKEN HIS STINKING AND OOZING BODY AND SHIPPED IT OFF TO WEST POINT, WHERE MAGGOTS WOULD HAVE THE CHANCE TO POUR OVER IT? LIFELESS BONES AND PUSS WRAPPEL MUCK. BUT ANYWAY, BACK TO YOUR QUESTION. WHERE'D YOU GET THE NUMBER 129? WERE YOU REALLY SUCH AN IDIOT AS TO GIVE THE ACTUAL AMOUNT, OR IS THAT JUST YOUR COMBINED S.A.T. SCORE? WELL, SINCE IT APPEARS THAT YOU HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO CAPACITY FOR THOUGHT WHAT-SO-EVER, AND THAT YOU OBVIOUSLY HAVEN'T THE FAINTEST CLUE AS TO WHAT THE HONOR CODE MEANS, PERHAPS YOU SHOULD PICK UP AN APPLICATION TO COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, I HEARD THAT'S WHERE IVAN BOESKY WENT TO SCHOOL, AND THAT THEY'RE LOOKING FOR MORE MORONS AND CROOKS LIKE YOU TO APPLY. ON SECOND THOUGHT, WHY DON'T YOU JUST DROP THE IDEA OF GOING TO COLLEGE ALL TOGETHER, SINCE I DON'T THINK ANY COLLEGE IN THE COUNTRY WOULD WANT TO TAKE THE RISK OF HAVING YOU DISGRACE THEM NATIONALLY AS YOU HAVE PERMANENTLY DISGRACED US. GET THE PICTURE RICHARD HEAD?

Dear Sami,
 I read the Christmas edition of your column and became very troubled. You kept saying "back in '63, things were a lot tougher." After a long reflection of my time at a major mid-western military academy, I came to the conclusion that I may not be good enough to be a cadet, and that somehow I was only accepted because the admission standards have been lowered since 1963. Is there any way I can test myself to see if I would have made it back in '63? I think I am just a product of the standards being lowered to let more people from California in. Who knows, maybe even James Webb was right. I guess I'm probably just a hopeless geek. Should I punch? C2C I. M. AWHIMP.

DEAR WHIMPY,
 LET ME START BY SAYING THAT BACK IN '63, THINGS WERE A LOT TOUGHER. AT THAT TIME, CADETS FROM CALIFORNIA WERE PUBLICLY RIDICULED. THEY WERE FORCED TO WEAR A-JACKETS WITH A PATCH WITH A PICTURE OF A SURFER SNORTING COKE ON IT, SITTING IN A HOT TUB DRINKING CARROT JUICE AND READING A COPY OF THE MOTHER EARTH NEWS. ALL OF THEIR NAMETAGS WERE REQUIRED TO SAY "DUDE," AND ALL CALIFORNIANS WERE FED SPECIAL TOFU AND ALFALFA SPROUT MEALS AT MITCH'S. BUT ANYWAY, LOOKING AT YOUR QUESTION. JUST THE MENTION OF BEING FROM CALIFORNIA PRETTY MUCH QUALIFIES YOU AS A GEEK, THAT'S FOR SURE. BUT, SHOULD YOU PUNCH? NO YOU SHOULDN'T, SINCE CADETS FROM THE OTHER 49 STATES (AND AROUND THE WORLD) NEED SOMEBODY THERE TO TAKE THE MEAN DOWN. I'M SURE YOU'RE FAMILIAR WITH THE OLD SAYING, "SURF'S UP, MEAN'S DOWN!...DUDE." [PERSONAL TO C2C AWHIMP: THANKS FOR THE LETTER. ALTHOUGH YOUR INITIAL WORDING WAS A LITTLE HARSH, A FEW CHANGES HERE AND THERE MADE IT PUBLISHABLE.]

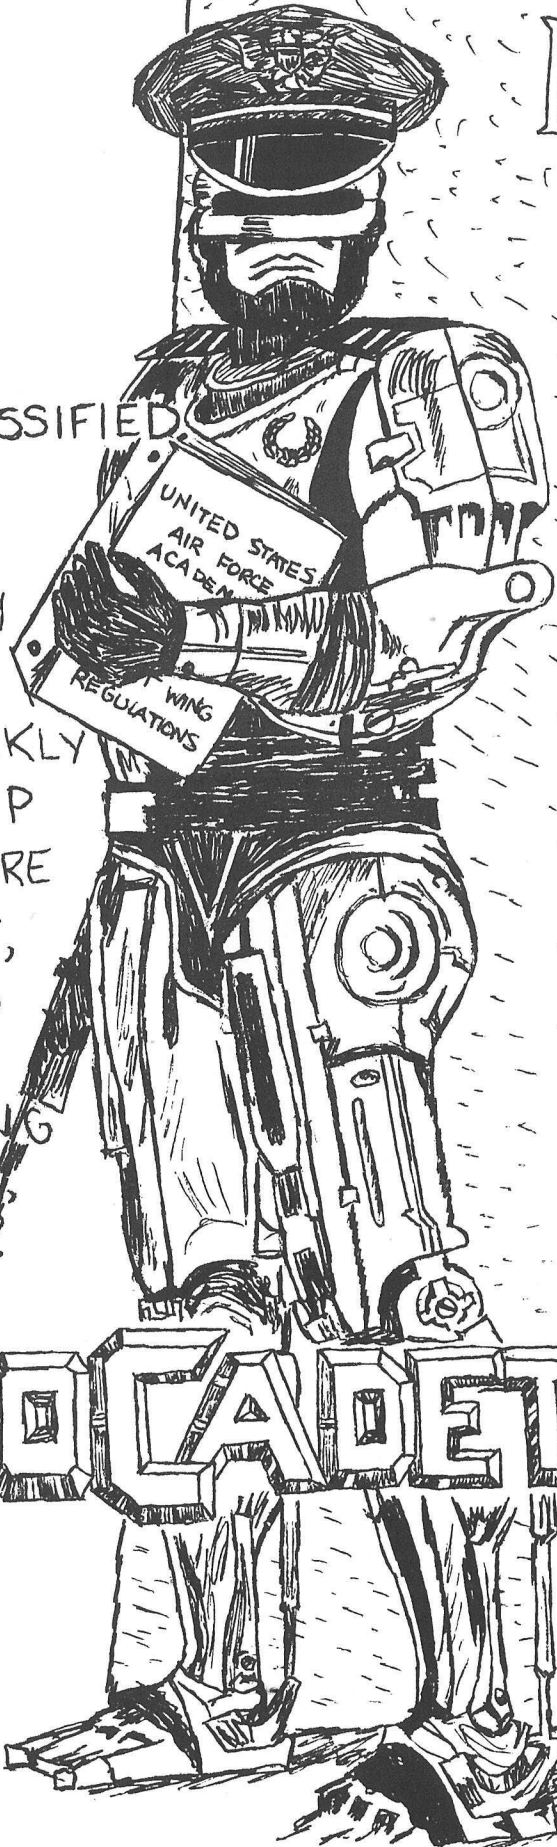

"Ed Jaymes" and "Frank Bartles"

"SAMI, THANK YOU FOR YOUR ADVICE"

Dear Sami,
 Lately I've been getting multitudes of letters from students at your institution. They've been asking questions like, "Should I keep the $129?" "How should I prepare for the PFT since I'm very fat and my knee hurts?" "Why don't cadets like me even though I take their book bags from Fairchild Hall?" "What's the best way to slit your wrists?" "I'm a firstie and I've gotten a four degree pregnant, what do I do?" "I'm no longer pregnant but I want a baby, what do I do?" "I'm on the basketball team, and every time cadets are required to attend our games, we lose. Can psychoanalysis help me?" "Who is the Dean, and why does he hate me?" "I'm in honor guard, sabre drill, drum and bugle, the military history club, wing staff, the flying team, and am an aero major. Am I an idiot, a geek, a wank, a dork, a super smack, a wad, an idiot, a jerk, a nob, an idiot, or all of the above?" Sami, aren't these questions that you should be answering, not I? It would appear that many of your cadets are very troubled. Would you please tell them to stop writing me, I've got thousands of problems to work on from civilians. Thanks, ABBY.

DEAR ABBY,
 LET ME START BY SAYING THAT BACK IN '63, THINGS WERE A LOT TOUGHER. WE DIDN'T NEED ADVICE FROM ANYBODY SINCE WE WERE ALL PERFECT. AS A MATTER OF FACT, WE'RE ALL STILL PERFECT TODAY. BUT ANYWAY, BACK TO YOUR QUESTION. IF CADETS CONTINUE TO KEEP WRITING YOU, JUST TELL THEM TO GO TO HELL; THAT'S BASICALLY ALL I TELL THEM TO DO ANYWAY.
