"DODO"

Here we go again with another (hopefully) great issue of DODO. I'm sorry the last issue (October issue) came out kinda late. There were lots of delays even though the draft itself was turned in around early-October.

We will, of course, try to have all the other ones turned in on time and ~~will~~ have them in your hands by the middle of the month.

For the Classes of '90, '91, and '92 (and any Firsties with access to Falconnet), James Sanchez came up with a nice way for YOU to provide immediate feedback. You can go ahead and use Electronic Mail to send to our staff any criticisms, praises, remarks and/or suggestions that you may have. We even set up a special account. Just send your messages to the account "DODOMAIL." We'll appreciate your cooperation.

Well, that's all I've got. Enjoy!!

FORT CARSON SOLDIERS HELP ACADEMY WITH DEER PROBLEM

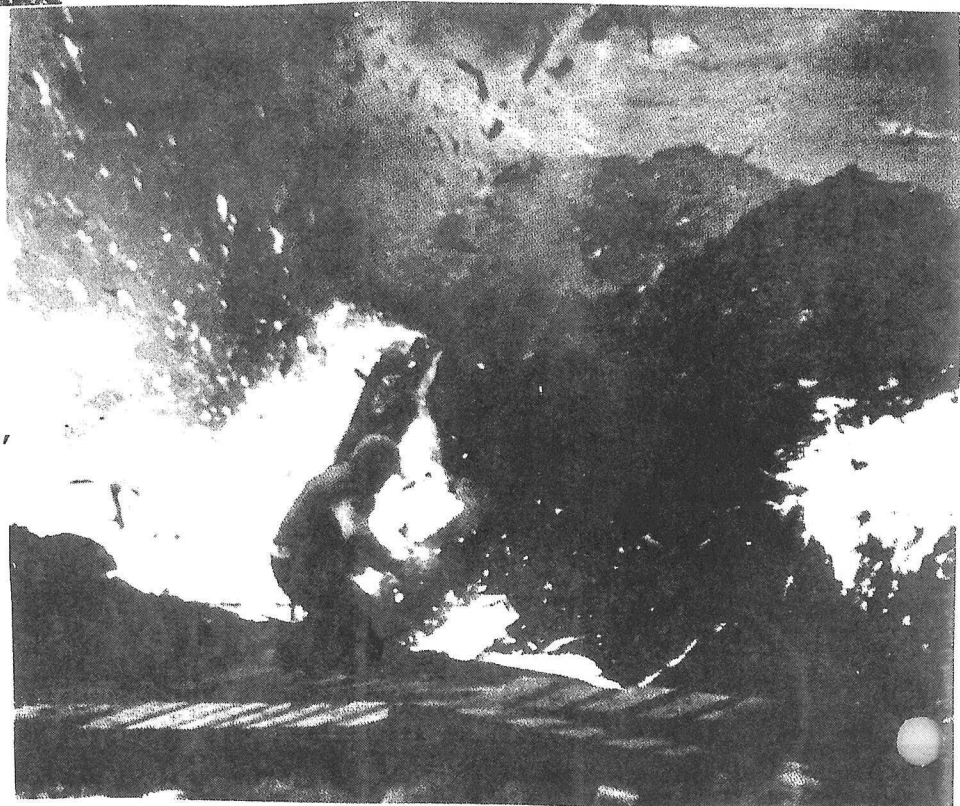

Fort Carson tanks take aim on a squad of deer.

After an air strike with Napalm, soldiers wait for deer to charge from hiding.

USAF, Colorado Springs - In a surprising show of intraservice cooperation, the Department of the Army announced today that soldiers from the 4th Mechanized Infantry Unit stationed at Fort Carson, CO, have been 'lending a hand' to the U.S. Air Force Academy in handling their deer problem. Army spokesman 2LT Joseph Shane stated, "The Army and the Air Force decided that this provided a unique training opportunity for our soldiers and would also help them save a few cars. Besides, I hate those furry little bastards anyway!"

The training begins with each deer being painted with a red star on one side and a hammer/sycle motif on the other. "Makes 'em look just like them Russian tanks!", stated one sergeant. The soldiers then hunt the deer and dispatch them in a variety of methods. One top Air Force official remarked, "Now if we can just let them practice hand to hand combat on those damned protesters!"

The Bathroom Scandal

First of all, this piece is based ^{LOOSELY} on facts, not opinion. Hopefully, that will be enough to keep the censors from cutting this, but they are notorious for cutting facts that they don't want recognized. They believe that women, homosexuals, liberals and semi-tame deer all have some kind of "protected status" and if we made a comment on a problem related in any way to one of these groups, we are being discriminatory. Lawsuits and censors aside, I will try to get this published.

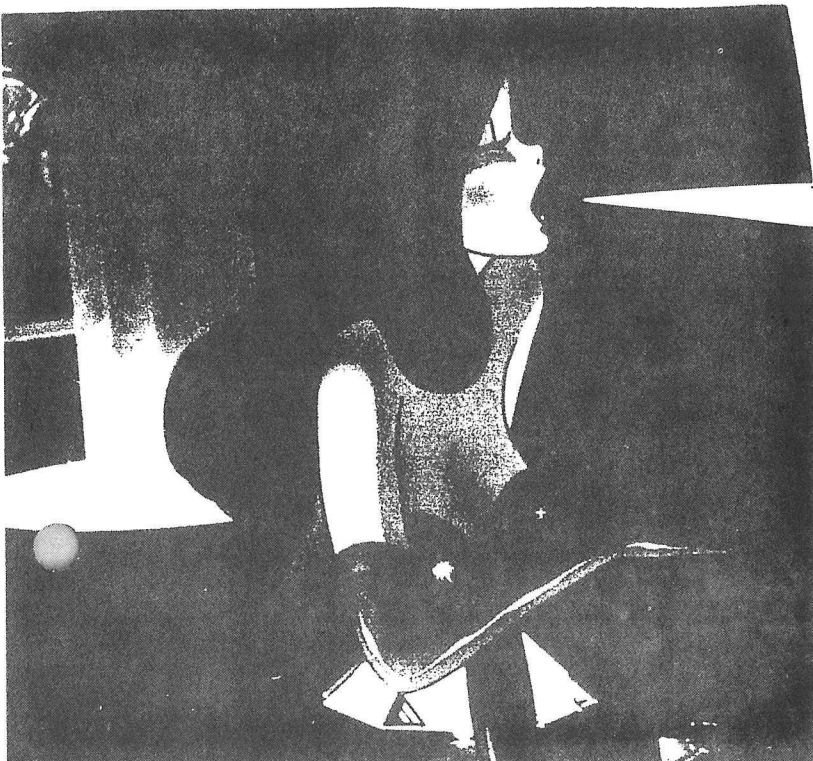

Lets go over a few facts concerning the Academy, bathrooms, and female cadets:

- 1) The female to male ratio between cadets is approximately 1 to 8.
- 2) Before recent bathroom renovations, the ratio of female bathrooms to male bathrooms was 1 to 3.
- 3) Now some (or maybe eventually all) male bathrooms are being "changed over" to dual male/female bathrooms (gee, that seems fair). So where there was one male bathroom before, there will be $\frac{1}{2}$ a male bathroom and $\frac{1}{2}$ a female bathroom. This could lead to a 1 to 1 ratio between bathrooms.

Even before these renovations, there was a problem. I'd like to ask the wing this question: how often do you find yourself standing around naked waiting for a shower stall to become available? I'm willing to bet that a good percentage of female cadets can answer this question "never." I'm also willing to bet that not a single male cadet can answer this "never." In fact, many males would probably say "frequently!" In fact, female showers are even of higher quality, with shower curtains and other frills. The current bathroom renovations will only aggravate this problem.

These renovations probably came about from complaints from females that they are forced to live near their bathrooms, thus limiting the choice of where they can live in the squadron. I know this is true because all the females in my squadron are clustered around the female latrine, at the extreme end of the squadron (I have always lived at the opposite end, guaranteeing that I will never have a female flight commander, but that's another issue).

So it seems that in the interest of fairness the bathrooms will soon all be half and half. Does this mean that males will just have to wait longer (or shower earlier) or is this the sign of a more ominous trend; maybe CW is going to half and half bathrooms to better accommodate a half and half wing! (Gulp!) Just remember, you heard it here first.

Sound impossible? Here is just one of the testimonials to the power of 7 Steps To Psychic Mind Control from J.M. in Madison, Conn.:

"I'm not what you would call strict, but I have a good sense of humor. Somehow, I was never able to get that 3.001 really wanted or to score with the really hard who turned me on."

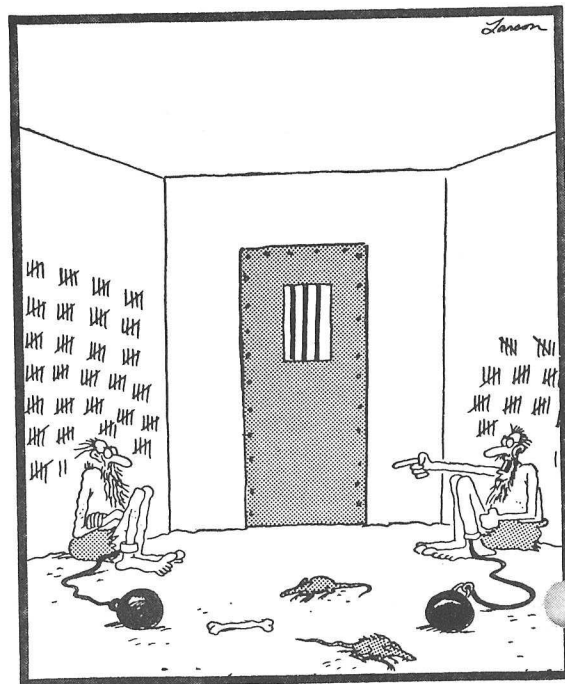

Your 7 Steps To Psychic Mind Control has given me powers I never knew I could have with AOC's. I don't worry about MPA anymore. If I don't have one, I know I can get one at a moment's notice. Now, I'm surrounded by classmates... all the time.

"What's even more amazing is I hardly ever worry about MPA anymore. I know I'm going to get more than my share and it would amaze you if you knew how many really ask ME to Train THEM now! 4's"

"Honestly, it would be hard for me to thank you enough!"

Turn AOC's Into Putty

The results enjoyed by J.M. can be YOURS! And it's so simple. Doctors know we use only 1% of our brainpower. 90% of our mental strength lies untapped. I will show you how to harness just that extra bit to get that "edge."

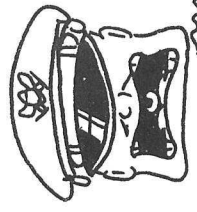

"And another thing! I'm sick and tired of you callin' me SMACK all the time!"

Common AOC quotes and what they mean

Well, Jim, you have to understand: that's not a right: it's a privilege. What this really means is that you are nothing and the AOC has absolute control over your life. Priviledges are granted and taken away by the AOC's as he see's fit (except for the priviledge of sleeping, which is taken away by the Dean).

I know you're the most qualified, Jim, but we need a female for this job.
or (for the censor's sake)

I know you're the most qualified, Jane, but we have too many females on staff.

This is the old quota game. AOC's will try to cover their ass because it's easier to put X number of females on the staff then to defend the merits of everyone in the squadron to justify the inequitable number of females who have staff positions (dear censors: this can be too high or too low, so please don't scratch this paragraph).

I treat everyone in the squadron the same--I have no favorites. Yeah, I bet he can walk on water, too. The AOC is going to have different opinions on different people. Maybe a certain cadet consistently refuses to laugh at his stupid jokes, or a certain cadet had the gall to suggest that maybe the AOC was wrong (when we all know that they are perfect in all ways). The cadets who DON'T agree with this are usually the 1st Sgts., Sqd. Comms, Wing or Group staffers, and others who happen to be on the AOC's "good" list.

I'll let the cadet chain handle this...

This line is usually followed by a statement to the cadet chain:

You guys can handle this, but I STRONGLY SUGGEST that you handle it like this...

Most AOC's will try to earn brownie points by giving the squadron the impression that he's a "hands off" kind of leader. The sad truth is that the AOC is not willing to let the cadet leaders learn by doing, and he will assume that the cadet leaders sure are glad that they have his experience to "guide" them.

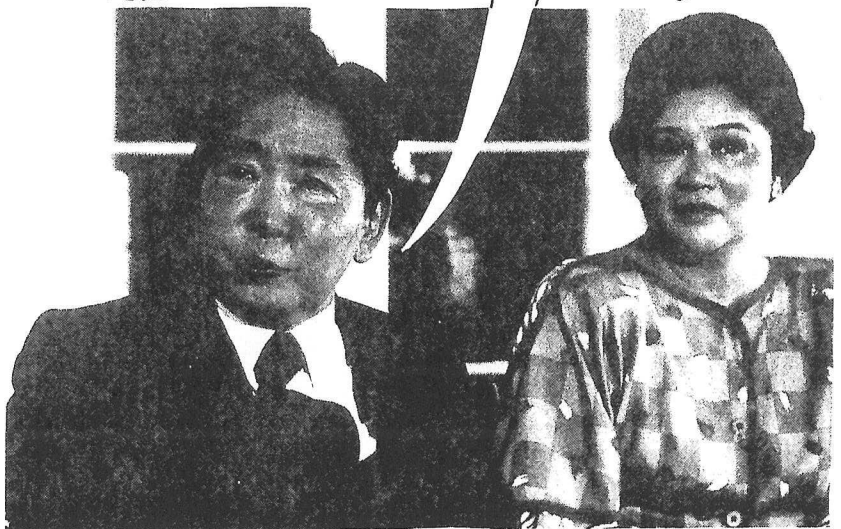

AOC'S SHOULD HAVE MORE POWER! IF IT WERE UP TO ME, WHINERS WHO SAY, "LET THE CADETS RUN THE SQUADRON," WOULD BE SHOT AND THEIR PROPERTY CONFISCATED!

I AGREE...
