

THE Dodo

A CADET PUBLICATION FOR CADETS

"Sir, the dessert
has arrived at the table!"

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
...DAVE SAMUEL '64

THE Dodo staff

THE DEPARTMENTS

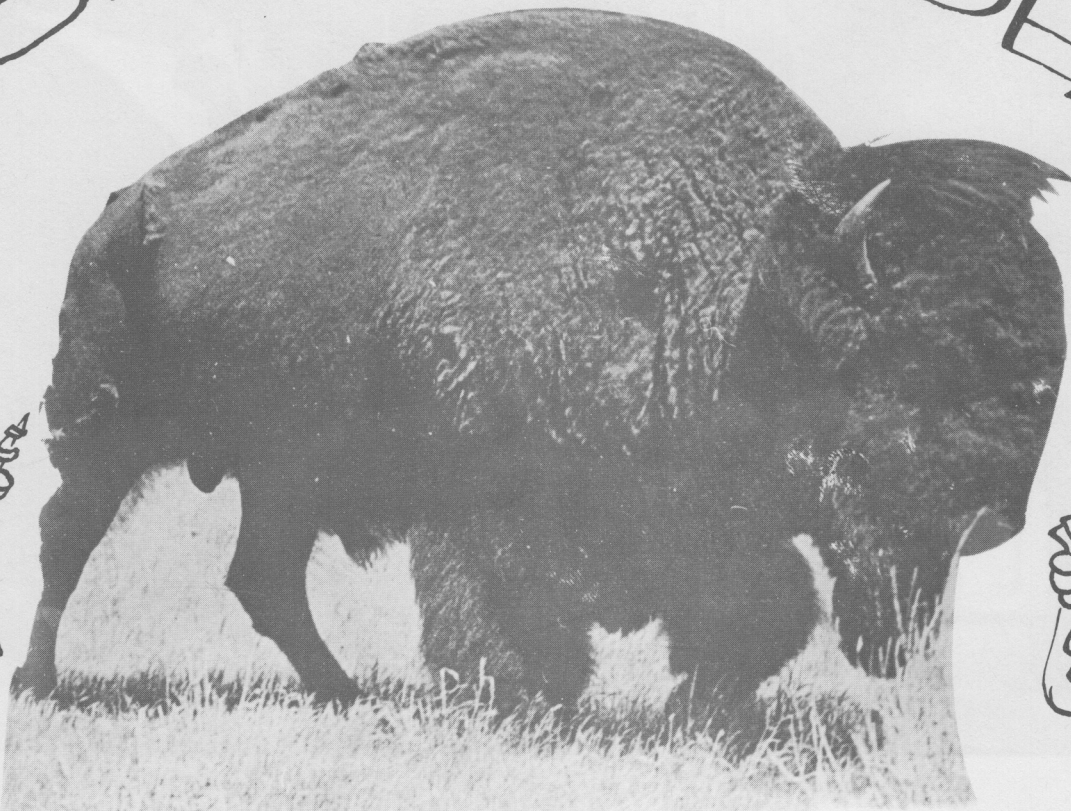

...Creation
Gerry Alfred '64 (editor)
Dick Brown '65
Bredvik & Melone '63
Bothwell & Osborn '64
...Sports
Jim Lemon '64 (editor)
...Art
Dave Connaughton '65 (editor)
Jack Eidson '65
Mike Ditmore '65

...Photography
Dick Shuey '65 (editor)
Will Stackhouse '64 (editor)
John Murray '64
Bob Bell '65
...Humor
Jim Brown '64 (editor)

...Typing
Herb Bevelhimer '64
Jerry Bolt '64
Bill Sakahara '64
Joe Rodwell '64
...Advertising
Wade Greer '65 (editor)
...Girls
Jack Oskowis '64 (master)
...Distribution
Don Graham '64 (editor)

BEAT

BISE

THE BLUE ZOO

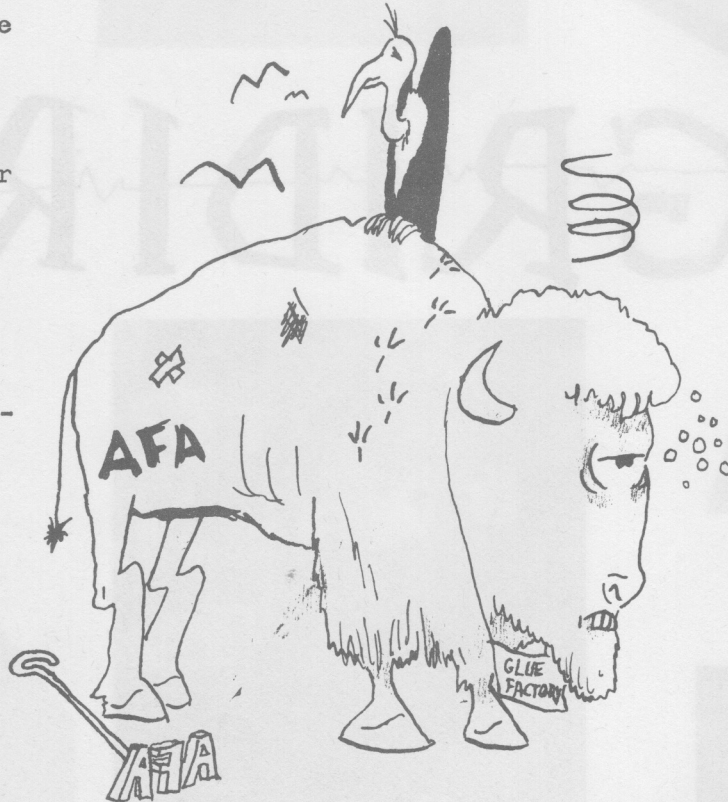

The first time I heard of the Golden Buffs I thought they were a speedy car-wash outfit, but I soon found out that they were a much bigger financial concern. It seems that a group of forlorns saw fit to establish an institution some time back that would add culture and athletic standing to the name of Colorado. We've had a chance to read and date some of their "culture," and their athletic record this year stands for itself. To this unlikely colony of cultured Atlas's and Diana's has been applied the obvious misnomer "Golden Buffs."

I suppose that this name implies that we should refer to our northern neighbors as a herd composed of family groups, as opposed to a wing composed of squadrons. Further research has come up with the interesting fact that the buffalo, probable source of the derivative "Buff," is a "wild ox; a variety of African stag...popularly, but unscientifically, the American bison." Of course, "Grungy Brown Bise" would not quite cut the gridiron mustard, hence the ingenuous misnomer "Golden Buffs."

The American bison comes in two colors and two models, brown and black, and male and female. In fact, the GOLDEN bison never really existed (sort of like the model C Ford). Fortunately, the Bison has many characteristics which adapt him to football. He is big, instinctive, and plays as long as there is sufficient greenery to keep him satisfied. The "Golden Buffs" are big, instinctive, and played well until last year when the greenery was cut. This year sees more of the lean and hungry types.

But maybe they don't really have the American bison in mind after all. Perhaps the "Golden Buff" is just an abortive form of Blindman's Buff or, on a more denotative note, perhaps the "Golden Buff" is a devotee (buff) of Golden. But golden what, Golden Colorado? Gold'n silver?

All of this points to one rather simple conclusion. Either the mythological beast, the "Golden Buff" is a native stag of Africa or something you wipe with.

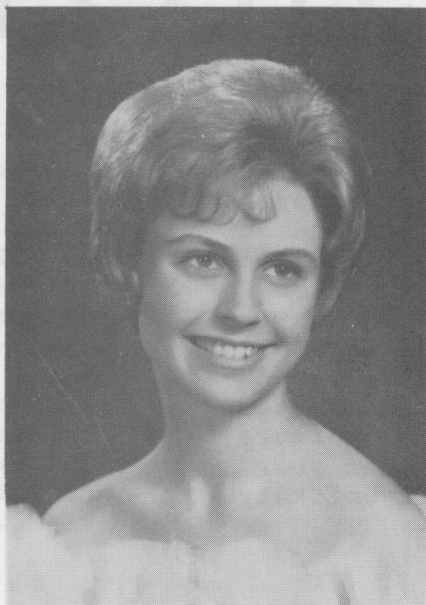

Elegy Written in A Country Barnyard

Last year we were the Golden Buffs
But now we got our woes
My Gilden Herd has now become
The Gilden Buffaloes.

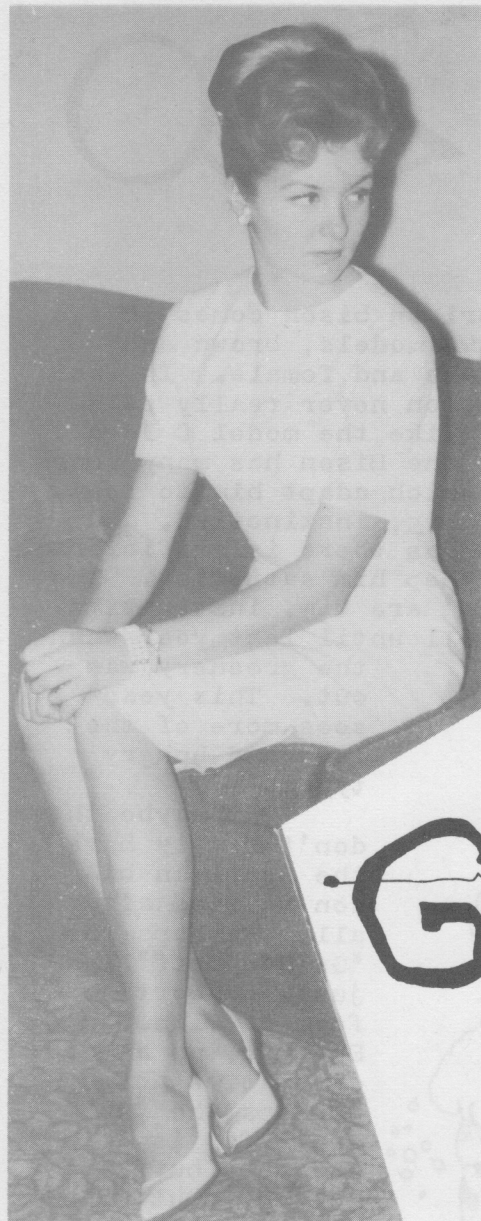

(CU Sports Letter)

Elaine Parke
Colorado College
...Dave Backus

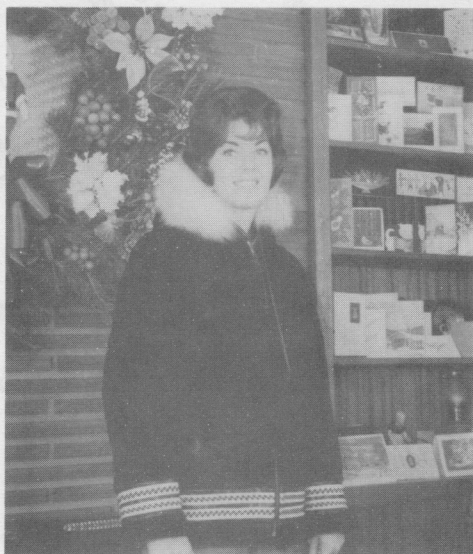

F
A
L
L
C
N
N

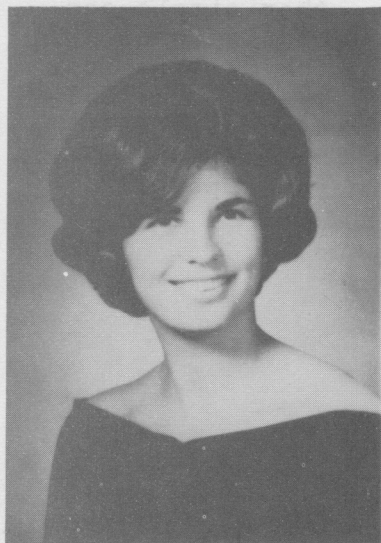

GRIDIRON

Judy Pearson
Denver, Colo.
...Jerry Thies

Grace Mitchell
University of Colorado
.....Al McArtor

Nikki Nestor
Univ. of Colorado
...Larry Tollstam

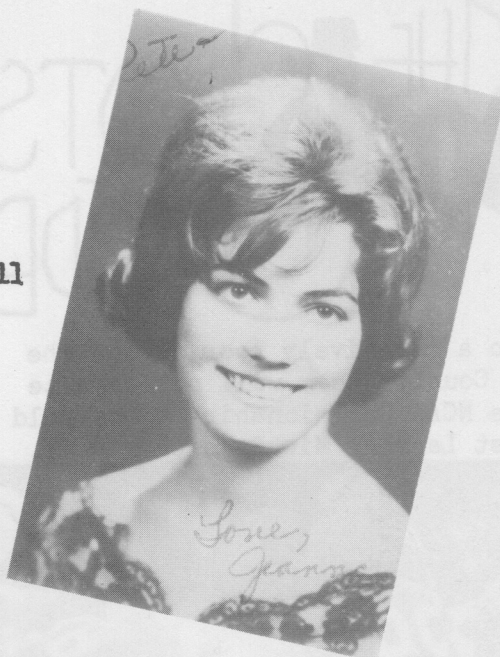

Barbara Allen
Colo. College
...Terry Isaacson

Bobbi Matlack
Univ. of Colorado
...Todd Jagerson

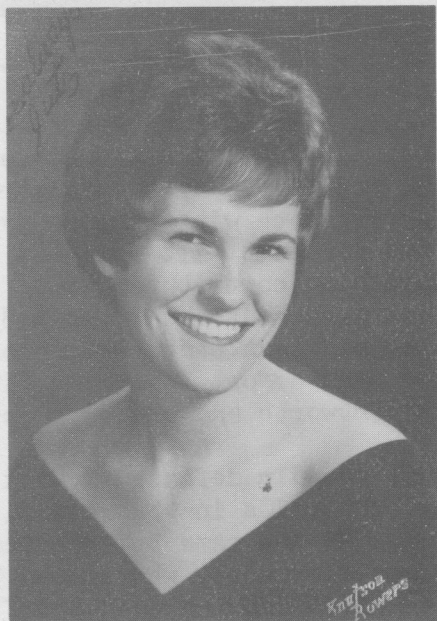

Jeanne Reid
C.S.A.E.
...Pete Mitchell

SWEETHEARTS

These two pages of the DODO are brightened by ten very lovely sweethearts of Falcon gridders. After each game, in victory or defeat, each young lady awaits her champion outside the dressing room door. And for that lucky guy, there will be a warm smile, perhaps a victor's kiss...and certainly happily shared hours ahead. To each girl on these pages, and to those many others which space forbid our printing, the DODO pays a very special salute.

Judy Roetzel
Colorado College
...John Conley

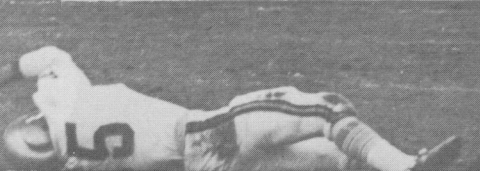

Nancy Clark
Denver
...Nick Arshinkoff

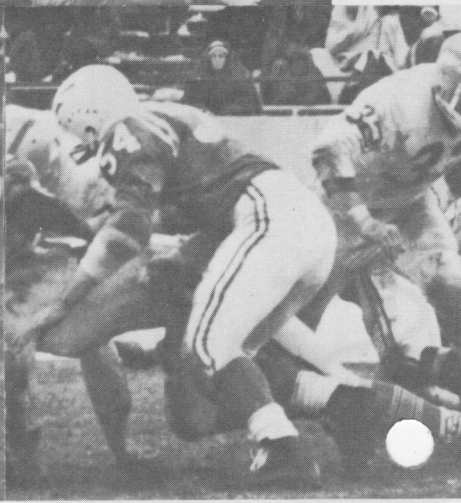

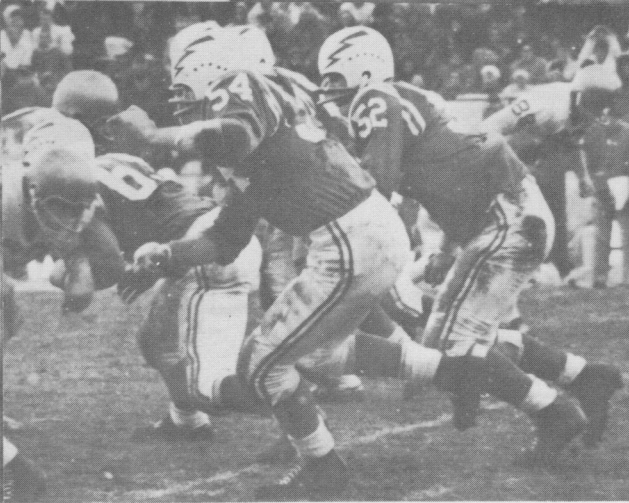

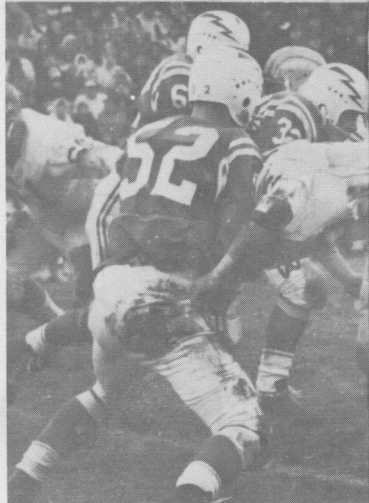

Sue Johnson
Denver
...Joe Rodwell

The Sports Scope

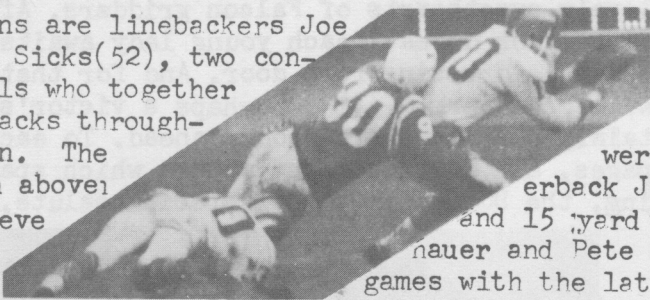

THIS WEEK IN SPORTS		RECORD
Football	3-Baylor 10	5-4-0
JV Football	28-McCook 6	3-2-1
Frosh Football	20-CSU 0	5-1
the WEEK AHEAD
FB at CU
S at S.F. Tourney
Thursday the annual Turkey Bowl classic will take place at AFA featuring AFA JVs vs AFA Frosh.

Due to a relatively poor season the Cross Country team will not compete in the NCAA Championships to be held in East Lansing Michigan this year.

Pacing the mighty Huns are linebackers Joe Rodwell (54) and Dave Sicks (52), two contact-prone individuals who together have menaced enemy backs throughout the 1962 campaign. The junior twosome shown above couples with Soph Steve Amdor in giving the Falcons an awesome linebacking trio.

A strong AF Frosh team defeated Colorado State University 20-0 in Fort Collins last Saturday. Leading the Air Force were halfback Paul Wargo and quarterback Jeff Jarvis each with fine games and 15 yard touchdown runs. Milt Spiegler and Pete Andrews also contributed fine games with the latter scoring the third TD on a 3 yard run. After a slow first half that ended 0-0, the Falcons came back with a fine team effort featuring fine line play led by tackle John Longworth and end Jim Gret

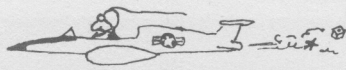

Last Friday AFA JV Footballers soundly defeated McCook JC 28-6. MCCook, one of the better JCs in the region, had to wait until the last play of the game to score as the determined Falcons with Joe Bleymaire, who scored 3 touchdowns, Tim Murphy, 9 for 11 in passing, and the fine running of fullback Mike Dyre setting the pace, played one of their finest games of the year.

AFA's Soccer team travels to San Francisco where it will meet some very fine teams in the San Francisco Olympic Club Tournament. After last weeks cancellation due to snow, this will be ONE last chance to determine just how Rocky Mountain Soccer stacks up against the West Coast variety, perhaps doing well enough to get more consideration from those who choose the NCAA Soccer representatives from the West. Among those competing will be Stanford, this year's Western representative which lost to St. Louis 9-3 last weekend in the NCAA Championships.

Heard the cute story about the little boy bubble who chased the little girl bubble all around the bathtub? It seems he wanted to see her bust.

"And can angels fly, Mama?"

"Yes, dear."

"Daddy said nurse was an angel last night, Mama. When will she fly?"

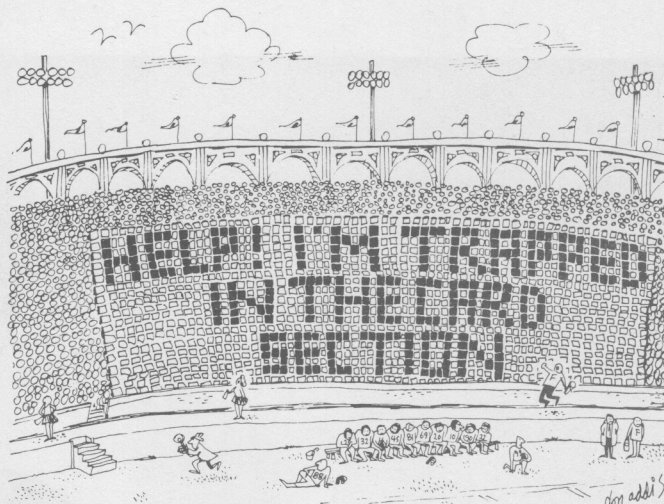

"Tomorrow," replied Mother.

Dads

Dots & Doodles

My mother and father are in the iron and steel business. Ma-irons and Pa steals.

Stanford -

Little Johnny wrote on the blackboard: "Johnny is a passionate little devil." The teacher reprimanded him for writing this, and made him stay after school for one hour. When Johnny got out of school that evening, all his friends were eagerly awaiting to hear what punishment he had received.

"What did she do to you?" asked one little tyke.

"I ain't sayin' nothing," Johnny replied, "except that it pays to advertise."

"But, darling, if I marry you, I'll lose my job."

"Can't we keep our marriage a secret?"

"But suppose we have a baby?"

"Oh, we'll tell the baby, of course."

"Pardon me, sir," said the waiter, taking up the money. "But this includes nothing for the waiter."

"I didn't eat one, did I?" said the professor, looking up from his book.

Three ways to end a dinner conversation:

1. Ask the lady on your right if she's married. Should she say "Yes," ask if she has any children. If she says "No," ask how she does it.
2. Ask the lady on your left if she is married. If she says "No," ask her if she has any children.
3. Ask the lady across from you if she has any children. If she says "Yes," ask her if she is married.

-The Harvard Lampoon.

