Now what makes you Cadets think
I'm that kind of girl?

You're right, she is stripped.

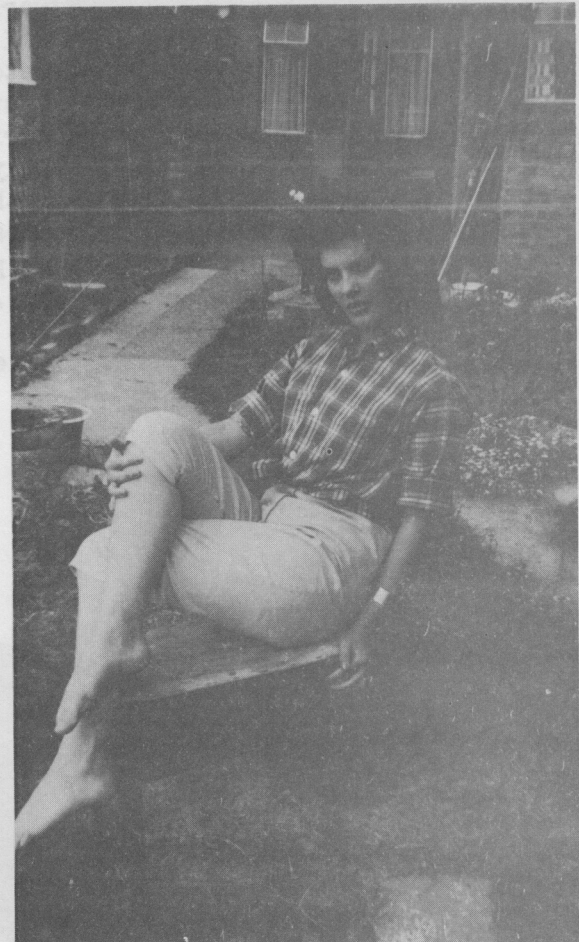

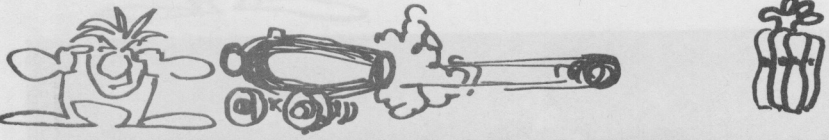

NOTICE

There are currently enough
DODO's printed to allow one copy per man, not just one per room.

Before Spacemate Shirley is introduced, the DODO issues assurance that ours is not to enlist volunteers for British exchange. For South Ruislip, London is indeed a Paradise gained when lovely 18-year old Shirley Ann Houching tours her neighborhood haunts...hoping, perhaps, that her search will carry her to a few of those things she enlists as her favorites in life-- a little dancing or just listening to American music. And to share these care-free hours, the 5'2" beauty lists one more apparent favorite...that lucky guy. 6'4" Rog Dunn.....

"1962 and Falcon basketball...I saw little Johnny Judd dwarf enemy giants in bucketing goal after goal... I saw Bill Knipp ('62) drop in the 10,000th point in Falcon cag history...I saw a Falcon team, always 2200-strong, fashion 16 strong victories as teamwork and a never-say-die spirit carried them to Dallas and the NCAA tournament...and finally, I saw the team drop far behind powerful Texas Tech in that tourney's inaugural game, then stage one of basketball's most brilliant and dramatic rallies only to fall two points shy of victory and a much-wanted meeting with CU..." But these thoughts, and this page, can only stand as a mirror of the past, reflecting yesterday's Falcon basketball triumphs. Today and tomorrow.....

FALCON
BASKETBALL

Saturday night the 1962-63 Falcon basketball team launches itself into the most testing cage schedule ever faced by an Air Force Academy quintet ... and in that opening contest, Coach Bob Spear and his Falcons — Rog Zoeller, Jim Diffendorfer, Johnny Judd, Nick Lacey, Pa. Hinman, Roger Head, John Sowers, Mike Pavich, Rich Porter, and a group of soph hopefuls— may be meeting their biggest single test of the season in Wisconsin's Big Ten favorites. The Badgers lost only one man from the squad that last year was the only fivesome to conquer powerful Ohio State in regular season play. A victory in this opener could spell a successful season for USAFA ... to gain that victory, last year's 2000+ team will have to be on that court. To establish ourselves, 1963 and 2500-strong on opening night, is to begin to pave that highway back to the NCAA.

In the only previous meeting of the two clubs, the Badgers captured an 80-67 victory. That was in 1961, and it was in Badger-land. This is 1962, and this is Falcon-land. ITS OPEN SEASON....

Thanksgiving morning at the annual "Turkey Bowl" game at Falcon stadium, the fired up AFA Frosh handed the JV's a sound 27-0 defeat. Halfway through the first quarter, tackle George Hanseth blocked his first of two punts to give the Frosh the ball on the JV 12. Several plays later, halfback Milt Spiegelhauer drove across from the one for the score. The conversion by Capicik was good. In the second quarter, Hanseth blocked his second punt which he picked up on the 15 and ran for the TD, leaving the score 13-0 at the half. The third Frosh score was a 22-yard pass-lateral play from Graham to Geth to Greenlee which came after Graham's partially blocked kick was recovered on their own 40. Capicik again kicked for one point. The last score of the game came in the closing minutes of the 4th quarter when quarterback Jim Graham went across from the 2 after a 58-yard drive. Radtke kicked the extra point making the final score 27-0.

The Falcon Soccer team traveled to San Francisco only to lose to California 4-3 and a strong University of San Francisco team 2-1. Ending a very successful season and sporting an 8-3 record, our Soccer Team is still looking for that chance to prove themselves against national competition and to give this proof have taken on a rough schedule next year including Maryland, probably the second best team in the nation and Stanford, west coast NCAA representative this year, along with most of the teams played this season.

Thanks from the Wing to our gridders for a fine season and representation that we all appreciate and are proud of. Here are a few of the statistics compiled by our team this year:

Judge: You admit that you drove over this man with a loaded truck. What do you have to say in your defense?

Offender: I thought he was dead."

"Do you smoke?"
 "No."
 "Do you drink?"
 "No."
 "Do you neck?"
 "No."
 "Well what do you do for fun?"
 "I tell lies."

"If I am still studying when you come back, wake me up."

A Marine regiment was sent back for rest after a rough tour of duty at the front. At the base they discovered a contingent of WACS billeted and awaiting assignments to various posts. The Marine CO addressed himself to the WAC commander, warning her that his men had been in the front lines a long time and might not be too careful about their attitudes toward the WACS.

"Keep 'em locked up," he told the WAC commander, "if you don't want any trouble."

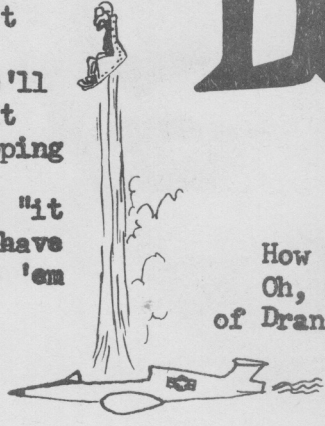

"Trouble?" said she. "There'll be no trouble. My girls have it up here," she replied while tapping her forehead significantly.

"Madame," barked the Marine, "it makes no difference where they have it, my boys will find it. Keep 'em locked up."

How do you keep eating in Mitchell Hall?
 Oh, it's easy. I just take a tablespoon of Drano three times a day.

Mother: "I didn't want my boy to be a soldier."
 Col. : "Isn't he in ROTC?"
 Mother: "Yes."
 Col. : "Don't worry, ma'am, he won't be."

Then there was the janitor who worked in the girls' dorm and was entrusted with a pass-key to every room in the building. After the first week the Dean ran across him and asked, "Why didn't you come around Friday for your pay, John?"
 "What! Do I get wages too?"
