OPERATION EASTER

In a very rare vein of sincerity, the DODO wishes to thank everyone for the wonderful thought and generosity in driving Operation Easter not only to, but over its goal. The final tally of collections made throughout the Wing was $1330.13, which surpassed the goal by more than $100.00. Thanks to every Peter Rabbit.

The job is not yet over, but your early support has indicated that there is little need to worry about the backing we'll get on Easter Sunday. Sign-up lists are now being posted in Squadron areas for all those who would like to spend that happy day with the 600 under-privileged kid who'll be our guests. We are sure these lists will be greeted with the same enthusiasm as was the drive conducted last week. And we promise that this will be one list you'll not regret signing.

Any questions you have concerning the program itself can be referred to your Squadron Easter rep, or to Dan Trial, Joe Bavaria, or myself...and we welcome suggestions.

Thanks again for the wonderful effort.

"Just a little off the top, and about 1/8 inch on the sides."

A guest in a small hotel was awakened early one morning by a knock on his door.

"What is it?" he called drowsily.

"A telegram, sir," responded the bellhop.

"Well, you can shove it under the door, can't you, without waking me up so early?"

"No sir, its on a tray."

"Would you give me a quarter for a sandwich?" asked the panhandler.

"Let's see the sandwich!" was the reply.

"Now that really ticks me off."

Had St. Valentine ever been introduced to lovely Karen Kopseng, he might never have been canonized. The closest association between the 18 year old University of North Dakota coed and the 3rd Century martyr, however, is her being named the DODO Valentine Sweetheart and reigning over the day named after him. Besides, she loves Corvettes and all he had to offer was a mule. 64's Harry Pearce has a Corvette...and a frequent passenger has been our very beautiful Valentine Sweetheart.

ATTN OF: Chief, Office of Subversive Activities, Dodo Division

SUBJECT: Subversive Insincerity in Valentines Day Love Letters

TO: The Lovesick Cadets of the Cadet Wing (The other .00273 % disregard)

1. The wide network of Dodo spies which has infiltrated the girls' schools and sororities of the nation has noted an increase of subversive activities among these organizations, directed to undermine the moral health of the Cadet Wing. A special report was submitted to the Chief, Office of Subversive Activities, AFCW (Dodo editor) and has provided an expose' of the Valentine Cards being printed by these organizations and has proved the notes written on these cards to be nothing more than form, "cross out the inappropriate comments" propoganda.

2. Below are examples of these letters extracted from this report. Should any cadet receive any of these type letters, he is urged to report to the Dodo Staff and obtain one of our handy counterforms.

FOR THE CHIEF:

W.F.A.

Creation Staff, Lovesick Cadets Division

Dear (_____/John),

Of late, darling, I have been thinking of you (all of the time/sometimes/ almost never/in negative terms) and I have decided that I (love you/like you/ endure you/abhor you). It is because of this that I must(say yes/say no/ think some more/say not only no but HELL no). I think you are (dreamy/con- ceited/trustworthy, friendly, loyal, brave.../a fink). Of all the boys I have ever known, you are the (most handsome/best looking/coolest/crudest/ most brotherly) and I don't know how I'll ever (live without you/live with you/be able to see you again/think of you again/wear your Micky Mouse Club pin again).

So, Happy Valentines, (lover/darling/fink/dear friend), may your day be (a happy one/a wonderful day/cloudy/full of quizzes). Please (write soon/ write/don't write/jump in the lake/stop bothering my mother).

(All my love/Sincerely/Your friend/_____),
(_____/Jane)

FORMAT 2

Dear (_____/John),

(Darling!/Hello Handsome./Sorry I haven't written./Hi!) I want you to know that(I'll never forget you/I'll always love you/I think of you always/ I am fine/I've been busy/this hurts me more than it hurts you). Do you re- member(that picnic by the lake last summer/that dance at Christmas/my room- mate, Jean/my brother, Bill/the boy who lives next door to me)? Well, I have been thinking over the whole situation and have decided that (he is an ut- ter idiot/I can hardly wait for summer/I want a new roommate/I'd better in- vite you to my wedding).

The main thing is that you know that(there'll never be anyone else/I'll always remember your eyes/it has been hard with you so far away/my father is loading his shotgun/he wants to join the Academy/Joe-the boy next door-is the sweetest boy in the world and I think we'll always be happy). So,(I'm wish- ing you a Happy Valentines/I'll make all the arrangements if you can go again this Christmas/I'm looking forward to seeing you at the wedding reception).

(All my love/love/Sincerely/Your pal/_____),
(_____/Jane)

Dear (_____/John/Friend),

I stayed up all night last night. I was (thinking of you/dreaming of the last time we were together/on a date/getting married/sick). You know how much you (mean to me/turn me on/turn me off/repulse me). Lately all I think about is (you/your car/your money/next June/forgetting you). I wish you were (here/free to get married/someplace else/dead). I can hardly wait until (I see you again/I'm in your arms again/you go to Viet Nam/you disappear). Until that day, I'll just have to (stare at your picture/pine my heart away/hope you stop writing/hope I waken from this bad dream/have a talk with my father).

So, Happy Valentines, (my darling/my good friend/*%XPQ&/chump) and may you always (be happy/be my love/be rejected/be such a nice guy/be so gullible). I will be waiting for you when you get home with (open arms/anxiety/a club/ my father/this friend of mine-she is really sweet and does all her own....)

(Love/As always/...'by/Your pal/Don't bother to answer/See you never),
