This is it the final issue for '71. With it comes Graduation, for most. As I sit here in the final throes of Apathy, I can see the Smoke out of the F.J. Seiler Research Lab has just turned white again. This means that the new CINC-DODO has been picked. And his name.....BOB FEELY! of Fab First! Though he may appear as a lackey, due to a Comm's Pin, he's not. He's a good guy So, don't be afraid to let him know what's going on next year in the never ending battle against the Comm Shop, etc.

So, from Harry, Warren, Skip, Steve, Nick and me, thanks for the support with the rag and Good Luck...

Dirty

Deal of the

DAY

The purpose of this portion of the DODO, as I have tried to do for the past two years, is to point out discrepancies throughout the Wing between Officers ("the administration", if you will) and cadets. Things such as our laundry service, "Mitche", the Comm Shop, P.E. Dept., and so on, have all been hit. But my last "quad D" of my journalistic career at USAFA can only go to the powers that be, here at school. This, I realize, is a large target to attack. There are so many little things to find fault with, and I might add that there are many good things to find fault with also. However, in checking around I find something that must be uncovered. '71 is graduating, but, it seems, with mixed feelings from the PTB (Powers that be). They want them gone but they don't want them as officers in their Air Force. After '70 left, policies etc. began to be questioned. At first there was a healthy inquisitive atmosphere. But inquisitive cadets began seeing things people have tried to hide (i.e. reasons for certain regulations, like a 15 day car restriction for a minor parking violation). First Classmen were bearing the brunt of the resultant frustrated reactions. Firsties are sucking gas nowadays, gentlemen. There are at least six men not graduating this June because of minor academic trouble. All right, maybe they didn't apply themselves but in one case the cadet has a 2.8 cum and is on the Comm's List. This is not unusual if you can remember last semester when there was a purge on kicking out perfectly qualified men for service for minor academic trouble also. Then there is the case of the Firstie footballers who, after winning last semester, are losing this semester. One is not graduating with his class, and at least one other has a "show cause" board to give officers, who have probably made up their minds anyway (refer for examples: any CDB recorded), reasons why they should stay and graduate. After four (4) years of "taking it", as they say, maybe a few, just a few, allowances could be made for the men on June 9th.

Because people (cadets) question authority and offer passive resistance in some instances doesn't make these people evil doers or "no goodniks". They are probably sincere and should not be punished but, at least, forgiven for the "sin of youth" and at most listened to and understood (for they just might be right).

May you always be happy, and thoughtful, and understanding and sincere. Long live the DODO, not necessarily for its message, but for what it stands for:
peaceful disobedience...

A DAY IN THE LIFE

"Sir, Cadet second class Waller, Andrew P., 728693K, 31st Squadron, reports as ordered."

"Who told you you could call me sir, squat?"

"No one, Sir."

"Who?"

"What, si--um--Col. Gelding?"

"I'll ask the questions in ret! And don't you usually adress a superior officer by 'sir'?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well you'd better! Now, you've been brought here today to be cruci--(ahem) as I was saying, to answer the charges that you failed to wear an athletic jacket under your parka at the morning meal on 18 Jan 71--is this true or not?"

"Yes, sir."

"Yes, sir what?"

"Yes, sir, sir....."

"Is it, 'Yes, sir, it is true,' or 'Yes, sir, it is not'?"

"It is, 'Yes, sir, it is true that I didn't wear my athletic jacket under my parka on the date in question.'"

"Who the hell is questioning dates?"

"No one, sir."

"Then stick to the relevant facts...do you know who this is?"

"Yes, sir, it's Captain Shee, who wrote me up."

"Now how the hell did you recognize him under his hood?"

"He's the only officer I know of who's never been seen except on all fours, sir."

"Oh...well, back to the matter at hand--your offense. Let's see, you're guilty. Now son, as a formality, we have to know whether it was intentional or (hmph) unintentional."

"Unintentional, sir."

"What!?!"

"Sir, the tailor shop hadn't found my athletic jacket by yesterday afternoon. I took it in a week earlier to have an illegal American removed from the shoulder."

"Aha, you ! An American flag, huh? Did you get that all down, Shee?"

"Arf!"

"Sir, I was already written up for communist and un-American activities by my AOC."

"By whom?!"

"My air officer commanding, sir."

"Oh, I see. And what does he have to do with this CDB?"

"Nothing, sir. He scheduled me for a separate CDB next week, providing I'm still here."

"You're not supposed to use abbreviations or contradictions, are you?"

"No, sir--but actually, they are not contradictions--they are contrac--"

"Are you trying to contactation me, do-wad?"

"No, sir."

"Well, you've had it mister. You're sick! You are in deep !"

"Arf, arf!"

"No, not you Shee! Well, Mr. Waller, you're going to be in your room for a long time. You've committed a very serious offense! Don't you realize how you must have appeared to the tourists?"

"At 0615, sir...in the dark!?"

"Sure! Anyone could see your--your skinyness next to everybody elses puffyness! Don't you care? It makes me sick to think about it! I'm giving you 100, no, 200..."

"Excuse me sir, but this is only a class one offense, and the maximum punishme--"

"Ah yes, Mr. Waller...but theres a catch....."

V-8 1 Meter Recoiless Bazooka

It seems that technology has had a tremendous effect on Inter-Squadron Warfare over the last few years. Back in the brown shoe days wars were simple contests to see who could "outfox" the enemy. The weapons systems of those days were primitive in comparison to todays sophisticated inventions. Such terrible atrocities as Rent-a-Douche Massacres and Chocolate Bomb scares have spread terror through out the wing. But even these weapons of the future can not compare to the cruelly effective and morally devastating V-8 Bazooka. An invention of the notorious Von Tully the V-8 is able to shoot a speeding Coors can 50 feet or a shrapnel Tennis Ball 3 cm. It can also be loaded with air-piercing bottle caps. Rumor has it that the next weapon in Tully,s arsenal will be the Fractional Orbiting Sugar-Packs. Nuk em.

Dear Abby,

I have a problem, I have two brothers: one works at USAFA as a Cadet; the other was sentenced to death in the electric chair. My Mother died of insanity when I was three(3). My two sisters sell themselves and my father sells narcotics.

Recently I met a girl who was released from the reformatory after serving time for smothering her illegitimate child, to death. Abby, I love this girl and want to marry her. My problem is: Should I tell her about my brother at USAFA???

"I see the beach is open again!"

She's busy planning for her first child. We are too.

Joe: "Say, isn't that Hortense over there?"
Blow: "I dunno. She looks pretty relaxed to me."

THE RAVIN'

* with apologies to E.A. Poe

Once upon a weeknight dreary, while I pondered weak and weary
Over many a text and supplement of courses known as "core",
While I nodded nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping
Like a Doolie gently rapping, rapping at my alcove door.
"Distribution," roomo muttered, "or linen for tommorows chore,"
"Only this and nothing more."

Now these thoughts my mind engages, it was in the bleak Dark Ages,
As each seperate dying Marlboro wrought it's mark upon the floor.
Eagerly I wished the morrow, vainly I had sought to borrow
From a firstie, mind demented, transportation (free--not rented)
For a rare and radiant privelege that the gods have named "extended"
And revoked forevermore.

'Twas the silken, crispy rustling, of forms to be delivered
That thrilled me, filled me with a silent hoping never felt before.
So that now I set my Smirnoff down and spoke, (eyes raised to heaven)
"'Tis my weekend pass" I whispered, "Just outside yon alcove door."
"Yea, fat chance" my roomo muttered as he drained his Seagram's 7,
"Fat chance." and nothing more.

Presently the tap grew stronger, hesitating then no longer,
"Sir," said I, "or mister, truly your forgivness I implore,
But the fact is I was napping, and so gently came your rapping
That until your rap grew louder and your raving shook the floor
I scarce was sure I heard you--HERE I OPENED WIDE THE DOOR
'Twas the OIC, now ravin' even more.

Then this OIC, beguiling aprehension into smiling
By the grave and stern decorum of the aiguillette he wore,
With my perspiration flowing from the ravin' that was growing
I inquired "Sir, what brings you all this way to 6G4?"
"Tell me what thy urgent errand is, that interrupts my Mech."
Quoth the ravin' "Liquor check."

Yes, 'twas in the bleak Dark Ages that the ravin' and the rages
Of the oakleaved spectre shattered dreams^{of} freedom on the floor.
Now my roomo has the seeming of a demon that is dreaming,
And I, I hear the echoes of the boards unquitting roar
As they raved and passed the sentence on the guys from 6G4...
"Tours and Cons forevermore."

"They hearded all their people into one place to eat. After saying GRACE I was WRIGHT ready to eat so I DUGAN.

They didn't have any place like Howard JOHNSTON to house us, we stayed at a place called the RAM-IT INN. All their people carried Red Books w/ them always with the words of Schofield's Tung. Now, I had thought that our movement would be restricted, but they gave us a Tour. On it we saw their (3) planed Air Force pointing in all directions from the Green Square controlled, presumably by the Nike Jesus System to the West side. After we'd walked for an hour on this tour, we went into an Air GARDEN and rested under a spreading ULM tree watching STEVENSON in the BAIRD bath.

That KNIGHT I played my first match match, My ADAM's apple leaped as I found I would face-- STEADY EDDIE! "NEFF, NEFF", he laughed as the ball CRUNCHED against my ALSTON. His PIKE shots came at me like a STAPLE gun, until, ZOMPA! It was all over, and such a SHORT game.

We were fortunate in that we brought our own Tournament balls in that the opposition-- didn't have any.

- B) This is the proverbial "inclined plane."
- C) The pilot has punched out.
- D) The cadet has punched out.
- E) "C" but not "D".
- F) It is aerodynamicly unstable due to the arrows.

ALL-STARS

1970-71

Well, its that time of year again when every body gets awards for just about everything. But, somehow these ceremonies miss mentioning the guys that really worked to get thru USAFA the hard way. So, as a public service, the DoDo presents its annual ALL-STARS.

To be an ALL-STAR you must be a graduating firstie of note.

Lead-off in the parade is KEN LYKKEN, 01, who was the 1st to wreck his car. It only took him one after pick-up to attack a telephone pole in Manitou for 2800$ damage.

The lead in Sleeping-thru-Class Category is BILL SIMMONS, 21, who totaled over 50 in a 2 year period.

Don't Forget Randy Lauterbach's
22 hrs on R-FLT!
Good luck to Rod, Dan & J.J.

As 17 OIC's will tell you there a SKULKER on the loose. He has sneaked into the Cmd Post and awakened that number by breathing, on them. Some are so scared now they often yell "WOLF!" when there is no one there. His name, as that of the PHANTOM FEELER OF FAIRCHILD HALL will go unmentioned.

As a team, TOM DAVIDSON & JACK HEMBROUGH have accrued 17 mos Restr and 365 tours, Wrecked 11 cars (2 total), & are both non-commissionable. They are best remembered for the Fri nite Trng Caper w/ resultant GPLD: a Bronco Top.

SKIP PEPE is the lead breaker w/ 1 broken hand, 3 times broken knee, 3 broken cameras, 20 car parts and misc car parts.

AMOS WIMBERLY claims the most Cons an undisclosed amount well over 200!

The least distinctive Cadet in 71 however, prefers to remain anonymous, cos this would ruin his record of mediocrity. So we won't mention Cadet _____ w/ 1 R-flt, and numerous CDB'S.

Honorable Mention is an award given to underclassmen of note. This years crop is full of potential for the years to come. Congrats for "KID" DAVENPORT, 7th, who, as his name suggests, logged the most total hours of sleep this year for to capture the Collegiate Rack Trophy. Knowing he had bagged the trophy he stayed up to celebrate one night in a card game. His capture netted him 2 and 40. Attaboy "KID!"

Applause to ROGER EMERICK, 2nd, who on his last tour set a new land speed record of 212 laps!

On to MIKE MCCARTHY, 19th, who faced six(6) "Show Cause" Boards. He passed 5 out of 6. Good Luck in the real world next year, MIKE.

Entrant in Collegiate Rack Tournament

Honorable Mention also goes to RICH PARMENTIER, 8th, who was kicked out X-Mass and reinstated after a retaken final and a Haircut. Also PHIL TUCKER in the Great ESCAPE, and JACKSON in his not-so-GREAT ESCAPE from the AP's Last Summer.

But, the Dean of the H.M.s is has to be 2⁰ DAVE MCCLURE who within 30 mins after reporting ing in to R-Flight last Summer acquired two (2) CDB's.

The list can never be complete, but these are a just a few of those to watch in the years to come.

The ALL-STAR CAPTAIN

And now... the moment we've all been waiting for... THE CAPTAIN OF THE 1970-71 DODO ALL-STAR TEAM... BRYAN RYE!!!

713863K

Off to a quick start, Bryan got the first FORM 10 in the class of 71 during a D.D.V.O. in 1st BCT. From Parents Weekend Doolie Year till June Week that year Bryan was always on Tours on Confinements.

Bryan suffered setbacks early in his career by making both the Deans & Comm's good lists. A quick recovery however, netted him a lifetime total of nine (9) CDB's. He hit on Ac Pro only Twice but did manage one (1) Show Cause Board.

Gung Ho, Bryan quit after 2 yrs at CSU to come to USAFA an be an ALL-AMERICAN Swimmer. He volunteered for RECONDO Trng and arrived in 3rd Lt, SEA 3 days early. Fortunately, an old friend of the DoDo, (Remember "POP" was on hand to turn the screws.

As a cheerleader, he endured an early retirement for saying more more than was printed in Caontrail: in support of our FooBaw Team.

So, here's the record for you statistics bugs:

Lifetime Tours:	170
Lifetime Coms	170
Class III CDB's	6
Class II CDB's	3
Show Cause Boards	1

Hats off! to Bryan Rye a winner and Captain of the DoDo 1970-71 Allstar Team.

EDITOR

JEFFERSON DAVIS McBRIETY

WITH THE RELEASE OF THIS ISSUE, THE DODO BIDS A FOND FAREWELL TO J.D. McBRIETY. J.D. SERVED AS EDITOR OF THE DODO FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS OF HIS STAY AT USAFA. AMONG HIS MANY OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS ARE 3 SUMMERS ON R-FLIGHT, DUE IN PART TO THE MASSIVE EFFORT REQUIRED TO PRODUCE A MAGAZINE OF SUCH LITERARY QUALITY. HIS CUM GPA? 2.00+.1 FOR THE SAME REASONS. IN HIS NEVER-ENDING BATTLE W/THE CENSOR, J.D. HAS SLIPPED SOME REAL GEMS THROUGH TO THE WING, AND MANAGED TO PULL THE DODO OUT OF A YEAR LONG SLUMP. J.D. WAS QUICK TO SENSE A MALIGNANT WEED AS IT SPROUTED IN THIS "GARDEN OF THE ROCKYS", AND WOULD DEAL IT A LETHAL DOSE OF INK WHENEVER POSSIBLE. HE HAD THAT CERTAIN GIFT, TO BE ABLE TO MIX TRUTH AND RESPECT WITH A SUBTLE DEGREE OF MALICIOUS DEPRAVITY... TRULY AN EDITORS EDITOR. IT IS FOR THIS THAT THE STAFF BESTOWS UPON J.D. McBRIETY, THE
