The end of the semester draws near; I can't honestly say I'm sad to see it finished.

Big news in the Cadet Disappointment department: the New Mexico game, Gene Roddenbury's dead, and Highlander II. Of course, the last item is the most noteworthy. I mean, Hollywood has corrupted one of the ultimate traditions of Cadetness. Personally, I demand napalming Paramount Studios in retribution.

Did anyone go to the Halloweenie Occult Jam Session Lectinar? What did they come up with? I bet they decided Halloween was a Satanic front for persuading children to sacrafice their parents for Nintendo Hellfire Game Systems. I mean, come on. Hey, next month I'm going to hold a lecture explaining about those silly trees with the lights on them: does anyone realize that these things are left over from pagan Druid rituals? And how about this Easter Ham thing?? Somebody should point out that there's no way Jesus would have touched one of those things- they aren't kosher! I guess it's just my history major showing...

OK, now to deal with this KAFA thing...did you notice the $6 hit on last month's paycheck? Do you remember voting for the Progressive format of our radio station? Actually, the whole ballot thing was a practical joke perpetrated by '90- they were leaving in a month, anyway. So, in the interest of preventing the spread of noise pollution, I'm asking for you to Distro your vote for programming format to me ASAP. This is an informal poll; I just want to know who listens to that [redacted] outside of CS-09 and Air Academy High. Listening to KAFA McDonald's McMusic, I'd even switch to Rap...sometimes I actually yearn for those bygone days of disco.

Q: What's hypocritical?

A: Writing parking tickets for cadets, and then forcing some poor degenerate out of his space because you won't park in your own. (No sir, I didn't write that; it was someone who looked like me...)

Sometimes classmates ask me how many times I've been chewed out by torqued AOCs whose images have graced our pages. I just smile and shake my head and look forlorn, but the truth is, I have yet to be confronted. See, I just send a four degree to report in for me, and since they aren't allowed to be trained, invariably they come back with pizza privileges or something. That way, everyone feels better.

Me and the OIC got this problem; we just don't concur on the term "cold". So instead of waiting to hear some CP threesmoke tell me what UOC is, I've instituted a new policy: UOS- Uniform Of SLOW. It's more comfortable, and I don't have to wait until 1550 to put on a pair of sweats if my LMD is lunch.

The PCE was a real gigglefest, wasn't it? I can truly understand measuring leadership with a 40 question multiple choice test. But then again, I've had a freshman at my lunch table who scored a 1430 on the the SAT and perforated his left nostril with his fork..eight times. And there's this Cadet X who was caught molesting women six different times; he's still going to school at the Government Issue Education Center, but I can't go out for two months because I didn't read that famous article: "How to Deal with Enlisted Foot Odors in the Air Force Today".

This one's for you, Bruce. Get Good Soon.

QUOTES

"THOUGHTS ON RACKING, DODO STAFF 1991"

-NEVER TELL PEOPLE HOW TO RACK, TELL THEM WHEN TO RACK AND THEY'LL SURPRISE YOU WITH THEIR INGENUITY

-IF I CAN'T GO BACK AND GET SOME RACK, I WON'T GO BACK AT ALL

-YOU MAY HAVE TO RACK WHEN THERE IS NO HOPE OF STUDYING, BECAUSE IT IS BETTER TO LIE PRONE THAN TO LIVE FOR GRADES

-IF I DO MY FULL RACK, THE REST WILL TAKE CARE OF ITSELF

-IN THE PROCUREMENT OF RACKTIME, ONE MUST LOOK AHEAD, AND NOT BACK, AND FIGURE OUT WHEN YOU ARE GOING TO RACK, NOT TOO MUCH OF HOW YOU HAVE RACKED

-NO MAN IS FIT TO WAKE ANOTHER WHO CANNOT RACK HIMSELF

-THE VALIUM MAY RACK A THOUSAND TIMES, THE STRIVER TASTES OF THE MAGNET BUT ONCE

-BE AN EXAMPLE TO YOUR MEN IN YOUR RACK, AND...IN YOUR RACK. NEVER SPARE YOUR RACK, AND LET THE TROOPS SEE THAT YOU DON'T IN YOUR RESPONSE TO SLEEP DEPRIVATION. ALWAYS BE WELL RESTED, AND TEACH YOUR SUBORDINATES TO BE THE SAME. AVOID EXCESSIVE CONSCIOUSNESS AND ALERTNESS OF MIND, WHICH USUALLY INDICATES THE MAN WITH SHORT NAPS OF HIS OWN TO HIDE.

-THERE IS NO TYPE OF HUMAN ENDEAVOR WHERE IT IS SO IMPORTANT THAT THE LEADER APPRECIATES RACKTIME AS THAT OF THE PROFESSION OF CADET.

-THERE IS NO LIMIT TO THE RACK YOU CAN GET IF YOU DON'T CARE WHO GETS THE BED

-RACK THEN IS THE SUBLIMEST WORD IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, YOU SHOULD OBTAIN RACK IF AT ALL POSSIBLE, YOU CAN ALWAYS RACK MORE, YOU SHOULD NEVER WISH TO RACK LESS

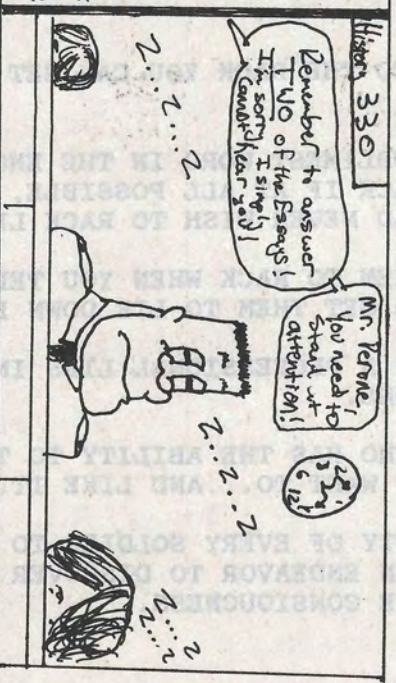

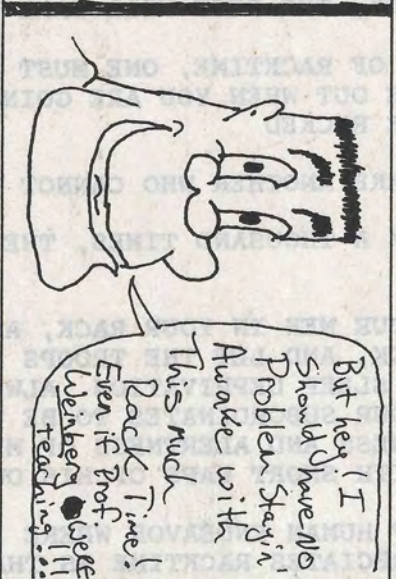

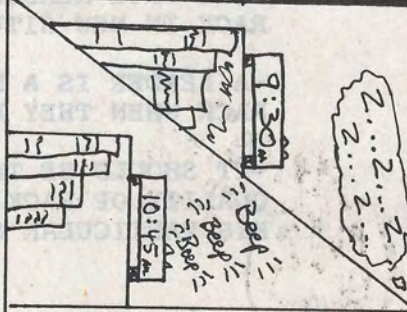

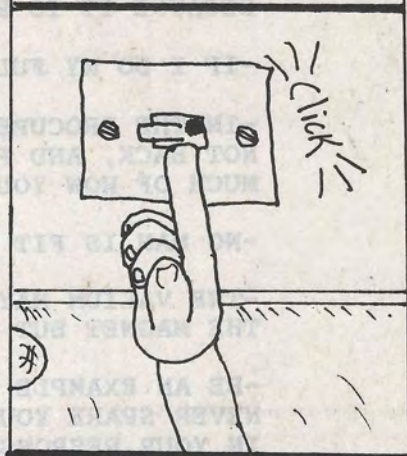

-IF YOU CAN'T GET THEM TO RACK WHEN YOU TELL THEM TO RACK, HOW ARE YOU GOING TO GET THEM TO LIE DOWN FOR THEIR COUNTRY?

-THE TRUE MEASURE OF A PROFESSIONAL LIES IN HIS ABILITY TO RACK IN NEW SITUATIONS.

-A LEADER IS A MAN WHO HAS THE ABILITY TO TO GET OTHERS TO RACK WHEN THEY DON'T WANT TO...AND LIKE IT.

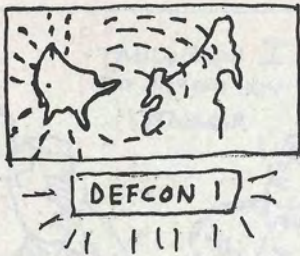

-IT SHOULD BE THE DUTY OF EVERY SOLDIER TO REFLECT ON THE QUALITY OF RACK IN AN ENDEAVOR TO DISCOVER IMROVEMENTS IN HIS PARTICULAR SPHERE CONSIUCNESS.

WAR STORIES THE AOC WAY
(Episode Two: The AOC with No Life)

There I was....

Sitting in the parking lot. It had taken me hours to perfect the camo job. Hours of pure hell when my damned kids mistook military preparation for a chance to relive Halloween. But I showed 'em, the undisciplined little punks. 30 days solitary should make 'em stain their Underoos and teach 'em not to bother Daddy when he's on a mission. Was the prep time worth it? You bet your subscription to the Falcon Flyer it was.

I could hear 'em coming. I checked my nuke-proof Timex and saw that it was 1959 hours, one minute until I could commence operations against 'em. I waited in the bush for the Dinks to show their Commie reg-breaking faces. Just one minute more....

The bugle sounded. My heart leapt into my throat and I nearly wet my Urban Commando BDU's when I heard it. Ac Call! It might as well have been Taps for the motley band of Dinks that night.

I sat in the bush and waited. I'd chosen my hiding place well. A couple of tall bushes right by the main path between the lower and upper lots. I reached in my pocket and tapped ol' Millie. She was ready for action. With any luck, the snot-nosed punks would come to me.

They did. Four of 'em, staggering their way right toward me. Probably at some illegal MWR activity with lots of booze and floozies. They didn't see me, of course. They never do.

Before they could scream "Act your rank, loser!" I was on 'em. Ol' Millie, my trusty-dusty pad of Form-10s, sang as I opened fire with volley after volley of tours and restrictions. God, it was heaven. Getting the drop on the Dinks like that made my night in a way that having the ol' wife creep into my tent never could. That's what makes the sacrifice worth it.

I spared the Dinks one last glance to make sure I'd aced them all. Sure enough, all four were curled into the fetal position beneath a mound of Form-10s. "Shine those Tour Pad leathers, boys. You'll need 'em." Laughing, I turned and walked back up to Command Post to claim my kills.

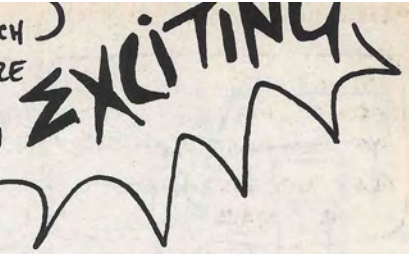

Some would say I'm a hero. Some would say I'm anal retentive. It depends on whether you live in the Comm Shop or the dorms. Either way, I'm here for another year. Better get used to it, Dinks, and pray you don't meet me....

DODO TAILS

It seems like I just got done being in trouble when- well, let me start at the beginning.

It had been an average cadet week: three GRs (two on the same day), an Astro project, a research paper, my Pulitzer application to fill out, and a briefing with each the Supe, Comm, Deen, Daackster, my AOC, every AOC in the Group, some AOCs from other Groups, visiting White House staff, UN delegates, Congressional staffers, and Geraldo Rivera. Plus, I got a subpoena to appear at the Supreme Court Justice Confirmation hearings.

So I was really looking forward to going out with a certain redhead in Boulder Friday night. Of course, Fate would have my LMD at noon that day. According to some obscure annal of 537-3, cadets are not allowed to sign out on the weekend until LMD or 1550- whichever is later. Needless to say, I spent from noon til two that afternoon tearing up the upholstery on my furniture with my toenails. I decide to trek down to parking slot in lower BFE to bring my Beast up so I can leave at 1551. At 1425 I'm back in my squad; some mongrel knocks and tells me there's a call for me. It's my date cancelling out.

I decide to put my car back and go to Old Chicago's that night with some 21-year-old friends to get a contact drunk (this is somewhat like getting a contact high at a Grateful Dead concert, but takes a little more determination).

When I get down to my boat-Chevy, I watch as a man in a flight suit slaps a white Post-It note on my window (I won't say the name of this SP-wannabe, but he's in CS-19). It's now three-thirty on a Friday; I am amazed. Can it be that a pilot has nothing better to do on the weekend??

I went to my AOC. We've got an understanding; he ignores the fact that I edit this rag, and I teach him how to pronounce tough Yiddish terms like "putz" and "schmuck". He laughs as he hands me an impoundment form. I ask him what he is doing that night. He tells me, "I'm going out, of course; I'm a pilot." Hmhmhm.

Well, since I won't get another chance for fifteen days, I drive that night, anyway. When I get back at two AM on Saturday, I tell my passengers that it would be best that I park in my slot, and did they bring hiking boots? One of them, a Squadron Commander (who's name I won't mention, but his initials are Jim Ebel) tells me that I can park up top until sign-in at 1100, as long as I move by then. Hey, who I am I to argue with a C/LtCol?

I awaken at 0930, and send a foursmoke to move the Great White Whale. He brings me back another love-letter from Major Clark. It's dated at 0725. Has this man no sex life? I find it hard to imagine a guy over thirty waking up early enough to drive up from Douglas Valley by seven. I give the freshman a bottle of Gatorade and went to talk to my AOC.

He wasn't in- he's a pilot.

I'm willing to part with one month's paycheck for AN aorta in Saran Wrap.
